GB/T 3805-2008 Translated English of Chinese Standard (GB/T 3805-2008, GBT3805-2008) <https://www.chinesestandard.net>,2023-07-22 This Standard gives guidance on the selection of voltage classes within Band I, as defined in GB/T 18379, for conductive parts that may be touched by human beings in various applications and environmental situations under both normal and fault conditions. After taking into account the significant factors, professional standardization technical committees may select voltage limit values other than those given in this Standard, if it is shown by experience that a reasonable safety level can be achieved. Voltage classes for patient contact in medical applications are not covered by this Standard. This Standard does not include any reference to insulation systems or to methods of protection. The conventional touch voltage limit value as defined in IEC 60050-826 for the purpose of automatic disconnection of the supply is not within the scope of this Standard.

United States Code United States,2013 The United States Code is the official codification of the general and permanent laws of the United States of America. The Code was first published in 1926, and a new edition of the code has been published every six years since 1934. The 2012 edition of the Code incorporates laws enacted through the One Hundred Twelfth Congress, Second Session, the last of which was signed by the President on January 15, 2013. It does not include laws of the One Hundred Thirteenth Congress, First Session, enacted between January 2, 2013, the date it convened, and January 15, 2013. By statutory authority this edition may be cited U.S.C. 2012 ed. As adopted in 1926, the Code established prima facie the general and permanent laws of the United States. The underlying statutes reprinted in the Code remained in effect and controlled over the Code in case of any discrepancy. In 1947, Congress began enacting individual titles of the Code into positive law. When a title is enacted into positive law, the underlying statutes are repealed and the title then becomes legal evidence of the law. Currently, 26 of the 51 titles in the Code have been so enacted. These are identified in the table of titles near the beginning of each volume. The Law Revision Counsel of the House of Representatives continues to prepare legislation pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 285b to enact the remainder of the Code, on a title-by-title basis, into positive law. The 2012 edition of the Code was prepared and published under the supervision of Ralph V. Seep, Law Revision Counsel. Grateful acknowledgment is made of the contributions by all who helped in this work, particularly the staffs of the Office of the Law Revision Counsel and the Government Printing Office--Preface.
