War and Conflict Quotations Michael C. Thomsett, Jean Freestone Thomsett, 2015-09-02 History is replete with pronouncements on war. Some reflect on man's warlike nature ("We are quick to flare up, we races of men on the earth"—Homer); others deal with the practical strategies of the combatants ("If Hitler invaded hell I would make at least a favorable reference to the devil in the House of Commons"—Winston Churchill); and still others offer advice for avoiding conflict ("The most disadvantageous peace is better than the most just war"—Desiderius Erasmus). More than 2,700 quotations on war and conflict are presented in this reference work. The quotations are arranged by more than 100 broad categories, from action to winning. For each, the quotation is first given, followed by its author, the work in which it appeared (when appropriate), and the date. The book includes numerous cross-references, and keyword-in-context and author indexes are provided for further utility.

Embracing the Beat of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within T

In a world eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous connection, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony produced by the prepared term often fade into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, situated within the pages of T 867 an enchanting fictional treasure filled with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional trip, well unraveling the concealed songs and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the touching examination, we can discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
