THOMAS HARTWELL HORNE

📖 Life in Christ Mark A. Garcia,2008-04-01 In three wide-ranging case studies Mark A. Garcia offers a comprehensive yet focused analysis of the centrality of union with Christ in Calvin’s thought. It explains not only the distinctive nature of Calvin’s response to Rome on justification, but why this response must be carefully distinguished from that of his Lutheran counterparts. The fruit of these investigations is the first extensive demonstration that Calvin’s exposition of union with Christ in relating justification and sanctification points to an emerging reformed theology of justification that diverges from the Lutheran tradition. Calvin’s exegetical and theological model of union with Christ accents the importance in the early reformed tradition of the relationship between Christology and salvation.

📖 The Unaccommodated Calvin : Studies in the Foundation of a Theological Tradition Richard A. Muller P. J. Zondervan Professor of Historical Theology Calvin Theological Seminary,2000-01-31 This book attempts to understand Calvin in his 16th-century context, with attention to continuities and discontinuities between his thought and that of his predecessors, contemporaries, and successors. Muller pays particular attention to the interplay between theological and philosophical themes common to Calvin and the medieval doctors, and to developments in rhetoric and method associated with humanism.
