Mirage of Imperfections Dr. Arsha M Dev,2020-11-26 Geethu, a young graphic designer, has to live a hard time in her workplace due to the constant abuse from a colleague named Sam. She wonders why Sam was bad to her alone. Later, she discovers that he has a narcissistic personality. At about the same time, the paranormal influence of narcissism also becomes a topic of discussion when Geethu finds an old letter from the colonial period in a library. She is soon joined by her near and dear ones, including her childhood sweetheart, Gopu, in the fight against Sam. Mirage of Imperfections deals with both psychological (authentic) and paranormal (fantasy) dimensions of narcissism – it conveys the message that people who are really good at heart can survive narcissistic abuse and become successful in life, no matter how hard the ordeal is.

Love Abyss Akarsha. R , The life of a PhD student tossing and turning in between friendship and love to meet its ultimatum is all its about. Easily acquainted between the people she loves; she could only stay as long as she could even if she knew that it will be far more difficult than she thinks it would be. Running a marathon to have love and making a lot of harsh decisions, it will not be easy for her to go through it all at once.

Climbing Rainbows Sreelatha Radhakrishnan,2016-05-05 Life is filled with challenging situations. We must face them – as children and as adults. Learning the skills to cope with the hard things in life is a rich, learning experience. Climbing Rainbows, a collection of six stories, celebrates these brave moments of struggle for children. Sudha is shocked to hear of her beloved grandmother's sudden demise. Why do people have to die? Where does death lead us? Little Keshav does not want to be uprooted from his school and move to a new city. He cannot imagine another life, other friends. Maya and Dev come to terms in their sibling rivalry by looking at things differently. Young Ashwin is torn trying to understand that his parents love him, but that grown-ups too, need their own space. Harsha, a chubby chunk of lard, fights a seemingly hopeless battle against obesity. Joshua, boldly faces the ravages of war to pursue his dream. Here are six champions who are tested to prove their emotional resilience. Through their difficult journeys they learn to focus on what they can control. They learn to embrace the challenges they face, not run from them. They experience difficult times and obstacles and come out strong and self-confident.

Jezebel K.R. Meera,2022-07-11 Translated from the Malayalam by Abhirami Girija Sriram and K.S. Bijukumar Jezebel, a young doctor in Kerala, struggles against the cruel realities of a patriarchal world-realities that not even her education, resolve or professional brilliance can shield her from. Her already contentious divorce proceedings go suddenly awry, and her unhappy marriage holds complex secrets. In K.R. Meera's blistering new novel, which takes the form of a courtroom drama to show us the rich inner worlds of its characters, we see Jezebel reflect on her life and its pivotal points as she takes the stand. Through her memories, we see her grow from a reticent, serious young woman to a rebel who refuses to bend to the conventions of society. Like the Biblical story of Queen Jezebel, who was much maligned as a scheming harlot and infamously thrown to her death from her palace window, Jezebel is a novel that asks if independent women can ever live lives that are free of judgement K.R. Meera's hypnotic prose, in this elegant translation from the Malayalam by Abhirami Girija Sriram and K.S. Bijukumar, makes resonant allusions to the Bible in powerful ways that elucidate the correlations between legend and the protagonist's life while also exploring how sexuality and gender roles are manipulated by the dictates of society.

Smart healthcare. A general encyclopaedia for healthcare problems Prem Jose Vazhacharickal, Sunil K. Joseph, Geethu Thomas, 2017-06-02 Scientific Study from the year 2017 in the subject Computer Science - Applied, grade: 1.5, Mar Augusthinose College, language: English, abstract: Health helpline is meant for interaction between users and doctors. Jewellery management systems. Development of a system to computerize the major transactions in jewellery like, purchases, sales and bill preparation Prem Jose Vazhacharickal, Sunil K. Joseph, Reshma K. R., Geethu Thomas, 2017-07-07 Scientific Study from the year 2017 in the subject Computer Science - Applied, grade: 1.5, Mar Augusthinose College, language: English, abstract: In this modern world, computer becomes more and more popular and important to our society. We can use computer everywhere and they are very useful and helpful to our daily life. Computerized systems can be used for scheduling the jobs, update the stock details, for complex calculations, and also used for preparing bills to customers. Here we developed a system to computerize the major transactions in jewellery like, purchases, sales and bill preparation. This software can be used for managing customers as well as employees associated with that shop in a short period of time. The minimum guarantee is that this system takes less time compared to all manual works, so we can save time and money also.

Lost Edges Salini Vineeth, 2023-04-25 When Geetanjali and Ravi fell in love as teenagers, they hoped to find refuge and solace in each other. Ten years later, Geetanjali is an ambitious contract negotiator, and Ravi is an unemployed engineer. Their insecurities and conflicts have caused a rift in the very relationship that was supposed to keep them afloat. Were their love and marriage a mistake? What brought an unlikely pair like Ravi and Geetanjali together? Beneath their turbulent relationship, are there deeper issues waiting to stir up another storm? To find answers, they must travel into their pasts and confront uncomfortable truths. Lost Edges is the story of two millennials trying to find love and purpose while navigating misplaced ambitions, mental health issues, and gender inequalities. Will the couple come out unscathed, or will they sink further? Will they be able to rediscover themselves and their love for each other?

Role of Information Technology in Flood Disaster Management in Kerala: a Brief Overview Prem Jose Vazhacharickal, Anakha Raju, Geethu Thomas, Flooding may occur as an overflow of water from water bodies, such as a river, lake, or ocean, in which the water overtops or breaks levees, resulting in some of that water escaping its usual boundaries. Kerala state covers an area of 38,863 km<sup>2</sup> with a population density of 859 per km<sup>2</sup> spread across 14 districts. Beginning on 15 August 2018, severe floods affected the south Indian state of Kerala, due to unusually high rainfall during the monsoon season. It was the worst flooding in Kerala in nearly a century. Kerala received heavy monsoon rainfall, which was about 256% more than the usual rain fall in Kerala, on the mid-evening of August 8, resulting in dams filling to capacity; in the first 24 hours of rainfall the state received 310 mm (12 in) of rain. With the use of sophisticated technologies, it has been easier to manage disasters both natural and man-made. The main objectives of the proposed research work is identify the various aspects of IT which were used efficiently for the flood disaster management during August 2018 in Kerala State. A QuickBird image taken during August 2018 with 0.6 m resolution was downloaded from Google Earth (Google Inc., Mountain View, CA, USA) and landuse maps (Landsat L7 ETM+, USGS) were used to track the flooded area in Kerala State. For the baseline survey, semi-structured questionnaires were prepared covering demographic, socio-economic and characteristics of households, as well as aspects of flood damage to house, property and agricultural production. Information Technology is widely used to save the lives of thousands of flood affected people in the Kerala state during the heavy floods in August 2018. These technologies could be further explored for more efficient flood coordination and disaster management in future.

Secret Healing of Mental Illness at Chottanikkara Devi Temple, Kerala Chittaranjan Subudhi, Soumya S B, Edness Rutta, 2022-07-03 This book is a outcome of a study was conducted in Chottanikkara Temple in Kerala, where the purposive sampling technique was used to obtain 14 participants. The target population were people with mental illness and their family members who attended the Chottanikkara temple for healing. The qualitative approach was used to conduct in-depth interviews to achieve the intended study objectives. The study found that a majority of patients with mental illness strongly believed that their illness was just a possession of evil spirits and had nothing to do with mental issues. With such belief, they concluded that the perfect cure for the disease is through temple healing. A few patients knew of mental health problems. They sought medical assistance, but due to their inability to afford the medical expenses, medication challenges, and slight improvement, they opted for temple healing. The use of different specified rituals in assisting people with mental illness improved the situation of the patients, as explained. However, some reported that they are feeling better at the time of staying around the temple; but when they return home, the illness begins.

Prospects in Bioscience: Addressing the Issues Abdulhameed Sabu, Anu Augustine, 2013-01-11 The book entitled "Prospects in Bioscience: Addressing the issues" is a collection of selected research papers presented at the International Conference on Advances in Biological Sciences (ICABS) organized by the Department of Biotechnology and Microbiology and the Inter University Centre for Bioscience, Kannur University, Kerala, India. ICABS witnessed a unique spectrum of Scientific Programmes on the most recent and exciting developments in modern biology. The conference displayed the numerous breakthroughs and significant developments in the important areas of modern biology and their relevance to the welfare of global society. The Book contains 50 well written chapters, each one discussing scientifically organized findings of original research work done in reputed laboratories. Needless to say, they deal with advances in various disciplines of modern biology including Cell and Molecular Biology, Structural Biology, Industrial and Environmental Biotechnology, Food and Agricultural Biotechnology and Medical Biotechnology. As the title rightly indicates, the chapters project the prospects in the respective areas and the issues in them. Specific issues discussed in the book includes development of transgenic plants, bioremediation of toxic industrial effluents, biotransformation for novel antibiotics, biofertilizer development, molecular drug designing and structure elucidation, molecular identification of pathogens, production of anti microbials, biocontrol agents and bioactive molecules, cancer biology, plant breeding and hybrid seed production etc. The book with its contents spreading across the vast arena of modern biology is expected to cater to the need of researchers, technologists and students.

Nothing's In Vain Reshma Babu, 2020-12-02 Gauri I'm on my way back home, to Bangalore. I had come to Trivandrum a few days back for urgent work. Although I hate this place, I had to come here. This place reminds me of him. It's been eight years since we broke off. I couldn't believe that he did it to me. I had to live then, live for my daughter. Nezhin I'm going to Bangalore for my friend's funeral. Merlin was the boldest lady I had ever met, but she died for no reason. I remember the day when she had gone into a deep coma. Madhav warned her. She didn't pay heed to his words. Now, look at her fate! Merlin It was a normal car accident. The couple died on the spot. They had a baby girl with them and she has been missing since then! Strange, right? Where could she be? Madhav is right! It's not my business, but then I don't feel like ignoring this incident. I feel I should find her. Read Nothing's in Vain to find out how the lives of these three young ladies are interlinked!
