Tupuna Awa Marama Muru-Lanning,2016-09-19 'We have always owned the water . . . we have never ceded our mana over the river to anyone', King Tuheitia Paki asserted in 2012. Prime Minister John Key disagreed: 'King Tuheitia's claim that Maori have always owned New Zealand's water is just plain wrong'. So who does own the water in New Zealand – if anyone – and why does it matter? Offering some human context around that fraught question, Tupuna Awa looks at the people and politics of the Waikato River. For iwi and hapu of the lands that border its 425-kilometre length, the Waikato River is an ancestor, a taonga and a source of mauri, lying at the heart of identity and chiefly power. It is also subject to governing oversight by the Crown and intersected by hydro-stations managed by state-owned power companies: a situation rife with complexity and subject to shifting and subtle power dynamics. Marama Muru-Lanning explains how Maori of the region, the Crown and Mighty River Power have talked about the ownership, guardianship and stakeholders of the river. By examining the debates over water in one New Zealand river, over a single recent period, Muru-Lanning provides a powerful lens through which to view modern iwi politics, debates over water ownership, and contests for power between Maori and the state.

There's no such thing as a dumb question Muru, Come Explore the World Through Fun Trivia! Designed to spark curiosity in 7-10 year olds, this visually appealing and lively book uses engaging trivia to encourage kids to see learning as an exciting adventure. The theme of the book is curiosity - that innate desire inside every child to understand how the world works. The trivia covers a wide range of topics, from science and nature to sports and technology, packaged as bite-sized facts. As young readers flip through the pages, they will build general knowledge and self-confidence as they uncover tidbits that even adults may not know. Since trivia has no curriculum, the book aims to trigger the imagination to ask more questions and dig deeper into new interests. Written in a fun, conversational tone, this book will inspire kids to bring their new knowledge into conversations with parents, teachers, and other elders. The trivia facts act as springboards to explore subjects more broadly and make learning collaborative. If you have a child who is always asking Why? and How?, this is the perfect book to nurture their curious spirit. Learning doesn't have to be limited to school - the whole world is full of wonders waiting to be discovered. Let this book spark the adventure!

How to Face Death without Fear Zopa,2020-06-23 A renowned Tibetan lama's guidance for supporting your loved ones through death and for dying without fear yourself. "Helping our loved ones at the time of death is the best service we can offer them, our greatest gift. Why? Because death is the most important time of life: it's at death that the next rebirth is determined."—Lama Zopa Rinpoche For years Lama Zopa Rinpoche envisioned a practical book to inform students of how to help loved ones have a beneficial death. How to Face Death without Fear has been compiled from years of Rinpoche's teachings and has been lovingly edited by Venerable Robina Courtin. Rinpoche provides detailed advice on how to help your loved ones prepare for the end of their life with courage, acceptance, and a mind free of fear. With great care, he explains what to do in the months, weeks, and days before death, how to handle the moment itself, what to do after the breath has stopped, and finally, what to do after the mind has left the body. Rinpoche provides the mantras, prayers, and meditations appropriate for each stage. This new edition of Rinpoche's modern classic How to Enjoy Death makes it easy for the reader to find the right practice at the right time. This handbook is an essential reference for Tibetan Buddhist caregivers, hospice workers, and chaplains. But, as Rinpoche points out, it is not only for people who work with the dying; it is education we all need. You'll find solace in this wealth of advice, and you'll also gain the confidence to ensure that your loved one's death—and your own—will be joyful and meaningful.

Buddha's Words for Tough Times Peter Skilling, 2024-02-20 Twenty translations from the vast corpus of Buddhist literature come alive in this full-color anthology of ancient wisdom for turbulent times, as a master scholar uncovers their sources and significance. Change and loss have always been part of the human condition, but in today's world, the pace and intensity of uncertainty has reached new extremes. The Buddha observed the truth of impermanence more than 2,500 years ago and diagnosed the source of the anxiety it engenders so incisively that his prescription still resonates and heals here and now. In Buddha's Words for Tough Times, Peter Skilling, one of the world's foremost authorities on Buddhist scripture, brings the reader face to face with the wealth of Buddhist literature, from a teaching in a single word, to a seminal collection of verses on impermanence, to narrations of the Buddha's teaching journeys across the Gangetic Plain. Translating from sources in Tibetan, Sanskrit, and Pali, he uncovers the complex history of the vast writings of the Buddhist canons, and his skill in revealing the meaning of twenty gems from within those riches brings them alive for English readers. We could have no better guide for this exploration, an exploration whose value is more urgent than ever.

Effect of Yoga Practice with and Without Varma Therapy on Selected Type II Diabetic Men Muru Gesan, 2022-03-07 INTRODUCTION 1.1 LIFE Life is Beautiful and there is meaning behind everything. Everything in the world is good, holy and beautiful—Swami Vivekananda The purpose of our life is to be happy—Dalai Lama Human life is God's genuine and a very precious gift. It is a combination of both body and mind. A sound mind in a sound body is a very popular and wise saying. Each and every moment of human life brings us an opportunity to act, develop and express our virtues. Each moment opens a path to us. It is true that life gives us both positive and negative situation. We have to face our difficulties in such a way that our actions purify our spirit. Whenever we feel connected with the soul we realize everything is good. Our body is our temple. We should keep it as a healthy vehicle for our spirit. Those who continuously react negatively to various situations of life put their health at risk. Opening oneself to others is a way to reduce stress and therefore promoting healthy life. Acknowledging and sharing feelings of anger, fear, sadness or stress, hope, joy and happiness can lead to a healthier life. We all have the right to live and we should not utilize the fact lightly with the thought of violence, war, hatred and death. Numerous researches have been carried out world-wide to discover the factors that make man-kind happier. The outcome of these findings indicate that happy-life is a combination of many factors which include good nutrition, regular exercise and a positive attitude as these factors keep diseases at bay thereby paving way for healthier and happier life. The young stage of an individual may require less attention on the above factors, but the aged persons require more attention and care,

Wives and Wanderers in a New Guinea Highlands Society Marie Olive Reay, 2014-12-15 Wives and Wanderers in a New Guinea Highlands Society brings to the reader anthropologist Marie Reay's field research from the 1950s and 1960s on women's lives in the Wahgi Valley, Central Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Dramatically written, each chapter adds to the main story that Reay wanted to tell, contrasting young girls' freedom to court and choose partners, with the constraints (and violence) they were to experience as married women. This volume provides readable ethnographic material for undergraduate courses, in whole or in part. It will be of interest to students and scholars of gender relations, anthropology and feminism, Melanesia and the Pacific. The material in this book, which Reay had written by 1965 but never published, remains startlingly contemporary and relevant. Marie Olive Reay was a social anthropologist who did research in Australian indigenous communities and in the Wahgi Valley in the Central Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Employed at The Australian National University from 1959 to 1988 when she retired, Reay passed away in 2004. In 2011 this manuscript was found in her personal papers, reconstructed, and edited by Francesca Merlan, augmented here by an additional introduction by eminent anthropologist of the Highlands, and of gender, Marilyn Strathern. Had this manuscript appeared when Reay apparently completed it in its present form – around 1965 – it would have been the first published ethnography of women's lives in the Central Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Its retrieval from Reay's papers, and availability now, adds a new dimension to works on gender relations in Melanesian societies, and to the history of Australian and Pacific anthropology.
