Hot Wired Style Jeffrey Veen, 1997 The web has its own language, aesthetics, issues, and problems; yet the infrastructure and rules of web site design are still in their infancy. Here, the author discusses how Web designers should collaborate with editors and engineers, have an acute understanding of the concept of real-time, master hypertext, know their audience, be wary of multimedia, and create sites that emphasize simplicity and clarity and that users can move through quickly. Disco Bill Bernstein, 2016-11-22 The deluxe edition of Disco: The Bill Bernstein Photographs is limited to 100 signed and numbered copies. This collector's item includes a signed photograph exclusive to this edition and is presented in a bespoke slipcase. Containing many previously unpublished photographs, Disco takes the viewer on an access-all-areas tour of late-'70s New York nightlife. Who were these people of the night...? It was the Posers. The Watchers. The Posers watching other Posers watching the Watchers, watching the Dancers, watching themselves. Bernstein's eye was drawn to the characters that lived for the night, rather than the celebrities, the unknown men and women who were transformed by the nightclub haze, and this is one reason his photographs from this time feel so authentic and immersive.

Spectral Nationality Pheng Cheah, 2003 This far-ranging and ambitious attempt to rethink postcolonial theory's discussion of the nation and nationalism brings the problems of the postcolonial condition to bear on the philosophy of freedom. Going against orthodoxy, Pheng Cheah retraces the universal-rationalist foundations and progressive origins of political organicism in the work of Kant and its development in philosophers in the German tradition such as Fichte, Hegel, and Marx.

H8r Michael Roy, 2022-01-08 The only thing that eighteen-year-old Andy Bradshaw had on her mind was that she was graduating high school in a matter of a few months. Andy has never been one of the popular girls because she makes good grades in all of her classes, reads and aspires to become a great writer. Unfortunately, she doesn't have anything to write about. Her twin brother, Riley, wants to follow a different path and become a rock guitar god. Because of this, they are almost always at odds. Andy has only a small circle of good friends which isn't anything bad to complain about. That is, until, a new and definitely different social media app pops up into everybody's phone screens. It is Hater, an app dedicated for users to only post hate comments back and forth to each other. Anyone who decides to no longer put up with any of the negativity and post a nice or positive comment mysteriously disappears. As the student body of John P. Dorset High School and the rest of the world grows more and more out of control due to the presence of Hater, it is up to Andy and her friends to stand up for themselves and come together as a team to take down this faceless threat. The only question that remains is: can Andy act quickly and take down this Internet monster before she loses everyone that she loves as they slowly disappear one by one?

International Law on the Left Susan Marks, 2011-08-18 Against expectations that the turn away from state socialism would likewise initiate a turn away from Marxist thought, recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in Marxism and its reassessment by a new generation of theorists. This book pursues that interest with specific reference to international law. It presents a sustained and fascinating exploration of the pertinence of Marxist ideas, concepts and analytical practices for international legal enquiry from a range of angles. Essays consider the relationship between Marxism and critical approaches to international law, the legacy of Soviet international legal theory, the bearing of Marxism for the analysis of international trade law and human rights, and the significance for international legal enquiry of such Marxist concepts as the commodity, praxis and exploitation.

City Lights Stories A. Collection of Stories by Regenerate, 2013-05 You are holding a collection of stories, the aim of this collection is to equip and inspire you to make a positive impact in your own community, through relationships and creative initiatives. In this material, you will read about Dave and Will who developed gardens on wasteland in inner city London council estates, encouraging residents to be part of the process of renewal and creativity by growing plants and vegetables. Will hosts community harvest feasts, bringing together local residents to eat their own locally-grown produce. Andy in his 20s, started a lunch club for isolated elderly people, rallying his student friends to help serve homemade meals in a borrowed church hall. Pauline responded to a news bulletin about the lack of housing for refugees and asylum seekers, by setting up homes across North London to provide safe housing. Annie set up regular meals in her church building for homeless people and rough sleepers. Mark started a football club for local lads from an estate in London, most of whom were from extremely difficult backgrounds and not in education or employment. Countless others have weeded gardens for families referred by social services, mentored children in foster care and painted a wall in a refuge. Abroad, Mick and Ruby moved into an inner city slum community in the heart of Manilla for 9 years with their young children. At the heart of City Lights are stories and friendships.
