The Barrier Grief Mihaela Arbid Stoica, 2019-05-30 The Barrier Grief follows the story of two friends in the war-torn Beirut, where in spite of the material destructions and the loss of human lives, the old city has stubbornly resisted violence. Donna, a resilient, independent businesswoman, immerses herself in her husband's trades to provide for her children, only to realize years later that she has forgotten to live for herself. Amidst accepting her children's choices in a life marred by constant bombing, finding crucial parts about herself strangled in a desert barn and discovering herself alone in a cold bed, would Donna recognize her true destiny? Anna, bereft and estranged from the outside world, has struggled to find her path again. Her son blames her for distancing him from his dying father. Beirut is increasingly dangerous and while everyone advises her to move on, she fears replacing her late husband. Would a new love emerge to heal her wounds or would it knock Anna to the ground again? The Barrier Grief is a fresh perspective on motherhood, widowhood and individuality in a world ruled by men.

Fe-Based Bulk Metallic Glasses Mihai Stoica, 2017-02-08 Mihai Stoica investigates in details the glass formation of two model alloys, $[(\text{Fe}_{0.5}\text{Co}_{0.5})_{0.75}\text{B}_{0.2}\text{Si}_{0.05}]_{96}\text{Nb}_4$ and $\text{Fe}_{74}\text{Mo}_4\text{P}_{10}\text{C}_{7.5}\text{B}_{2.5}\text{Si}_2$. More than 20 master alloys using different raw materials were prepared. Besides the typical calorimetry and X-Ray diffraction, magnetic measurements were employed to analyze the amorphicity degree of the sample. Two new bulk metallic glass-forming alloy compositions are designed and possible preparation routes are proposed.

Against All Odds Alina Stoica,2023-05-31 This is a story about a girl whose life takes a twisted turn very abruptly, and she finds herself having to choose between running away from everything she knew before, or face all of it head on. This is a story about bad choices, generational karma, abuse and self-abuse. This is the story of a Phoenix, who comes back to life burning so brightly, that it burns everything in its way.

Stateless Core: A Scalable Approach for Quality of Service in the Internet Ion Stoica,2004-04-22 This book is a revised version of the author's PhD thesis, which was selected as the winning thesis of the 2001 ACM Doctoral Dissertation Competition. Ion Stoica did his PhD work at Carnegie Mellon University with Hui Zhang as thesis adviser. The author addresses the most pressing and difficult problem facing the Internet community today: how to enhance the Internet to support rich functionalities, such as QoS and traffic management, while still maintaining the scalability and robustness properties embodied in the original Internet architecture. The monograph presents complete solutions including architectures, algorithms, and implementations dealing with fundamental problems of today's Internet: providing guaranteed services, differentiated services, and flow protection. Compared to existing solutions, Ion Stoica's solution eliminates the complex operations on both data and control paths in the network core. All in all, the research results presented in this monograph constitute one of the most important contributions to networking research in the past ten years.

The Human Capital: Challenges And Perspectives

Coordinator: Cristina Balaceanu,2013-11-01 The nowadays

society is confronted with some of the most pronounced disparities in the economic system, with direct repercussions on the labor market, borne by both employees and employers. The main deficiencies of the labor market are caused by the low growth rate of the demand for goods, with consequences in terms of employment, the effect of decreasing the purchasing power of the population, the lack of correlation between the growth rates of labor productivity and the price of labor, and also to an insufficient training of a practical nature of the workforce. Labor market is therefore a manifestation of the need to work for both the production act, from the perspective of the firms' sector, and the consumer act, from the perspective of the household's sector, each of the two sectors having different determinations for the same objective: gaining profit from valuing the work. Therefore, work is analyzed in the terms of profitability: cost for the producer, income for the worker, benefit for the society, in the conditions in which from valuing the work production factor and the human capital it can be created the object of the economic goods' market. In the current economic and social-political development context, on the labor market there is an intensification of a series of manifestations that have as substance educational and cultural heterogeneity, the institutional dissolution or the dissolution of authorities in what regards the establishment of some normative elements that would favor work and entrepreneurship, by means of economic strings, mainly fiscal ones, the lack of complementarity between educational policies and occupational ones. Importance of labor market equilibrium resulting from the decisive role of human resources in the economic and social development.

Five Mirrors, Five Blessings Susana Stoica,2019-07-29
Five Mirrors, Five Blessings is a timely book for anyone who feels overwhelmed by life events and is struggling to reach their full potential. It is the story of a woman who examines her life in order to figure out why things happened the way they did, and how different people shaped who she is today. The woman is a composite of the many women the author has worked with over the past thirty years and the emotional traumas described are typical for our times. The book is not a replacement for therapy, although the exercises provided in each chapter enable readers to start exploring their own experiences and uncover the lessons they learned through happy and not-so-happy life events. Toughing it out is not the solution. Facing our history head on and learning from it is what makes us become more productive and more compassionate human beings.

Healing My Brain, Reclaiming My Life Susana Stoica, 2016-09-19 The book ...is written by somebody who was brain injured and as such it gives me, as a medical professional, a glimpse into how it feels to be in that situation and what it takes to be functional again. The book includes some interesting insights... Dr. Mitchell Elkins, Neurologist
