A Homeowner's Guide to Mortgage Acceleration

Tony G. Jones, 2004 Mortgage acceleration is the accelerated repayment of your mortgage. Homeowners utilize this process to save thousands in interest costs, to build equity two-to-three times faster, and to reduce the term on their mortgages. Start treating your mortgage like an investment tool through the mortgage acceleration process and you will expedite owning your home free and clear. Learn the secrets to the process of mortgage acceleration and you will be amazed at the results. From the Author I have a Bachelors of Science degree in Business Administration and a Masters of Science degree in Administration. My first home was purchased in 1994. I began utilizing the mortgage acceleration process and was amazed at the results. Table of Contents

Enter the Mortgage Dragon Jim Seibert, 2021-05-12

Enter the Mortgage Dragon: True Facts from a Mortgage Industry Insider with a Personal Tell-All is a compelling personal story about a man who overcame extreme adversity to succeed in the lucrative mortgage industry. This comes with great tips along the way and the pitfalls to avoid when it comes to the department of business oversight. You do not have to have an Ivy League education to succeed in this line of work or any other field in which by referral only is the dream goal. Enter the Mortgage Dragon is unlike any book on the subject, as it gives the reader a very personal journey while at the same time covers every important aspect in the industry. A few of the key takeaways include the following: The importance of understanding the various loan programs to assess what works best for you as a consumer or your client How down payments, credit, and income affect a mortgage Why customer service is crucial in achieving lending industry success Understanding credit and mistakes a consumer should not make during the loan process How to avoid the department of business oversight You are guilty until proven innocent How to effectively use the internet when it comes to the lending industry Best practices a mortgage loan advisor should keep-marketing and beyond Learn from author Jim Siebert, a previous top achiever in this field, through the journey of his childhood and personal relationships, his passion for U2, and the years that have had a profound effect on his career. Be prepared to be inspired while learning the important tools to succeed!

Mr. Tenkey's // 100 Tips to Win in the Mortgage Industry Christopher M. Mason, 2019-09-23 The author has put his decades of experience in the mortgage industry, into these easy-to-read tips. I'll let the readers see for themselves, but the best part of this book is that the author's suggestions are all very practical. The author has an easy, colloquial style; uses humor; and communicates his points well. Each tip will bring sound advice to the reader, from an often unexpected direction. The author's depth and breadth of experience is evident throughout. This book will challenge the way you think about the mortgage industry. And by the time you finish it, you just might have found the keys to surviving and thriving in it.

Beware of Real Estate Rip-Offs W. Millerd
Porter, 2010-03-25

Making the Bank Wait ! Metro Lending, 2012-02-03
The true story of how a homeowner made the bank wait for over two years without making a single mortgage payment. The lender was actually barred by court order from collecting on the mortgage in question! This book, as narrated by the lender, reveals the shocking truths behind the staggering levels of incompetence within the lending and judicial system that any homeowner with patience could use to their advantage!

One Girl One Dream Laura Dekker,2014-11-01 The amazing autobiographical account of the youngest ever solo circumnavigation of the Earth. First time in English! If you want to see the other side of the world, you can do two things: turn the world upside down, or travel there yourself. In 2012, at the age of just 16, Laura Dekker became the youngest sailor ever to single-handedly circumnavigate the globe. In realising her long-held dream, she had not only braved the wild oceans and long weeks of solitude at sea, but also the doubts and sometimes hostile resistance of officials. In this remarkable account of her incredible journey - for the first time in English - Laura describes in her own words what it is like to sail solo around the world, and the determination it takes to do it at such a young age. Exciting, awe-inspiring and inspirational, this is a real-life adventure for readers of all ages.

The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints,1981

Competition and Stability in Banking Marcel Canoy,2001 The banking sector in Europe is subject to continuous change. Banks are taking up new types of business in order to diversify their risk; new players such as insurance companies, credit card providers, and non-financial companies enter market segments which used to be the territory of commercial banks; and banks increasingly operate outside their home country or merge with cross-border partners. These developments, triggered by new information technology, disintermediation, deregulation, and the arrival of the Euro, change the landscape in the banking sector and raise a number of policy issues. What are the implications for competition among banks? How can financial stability best be maintained in this changing market? Is there a conflict between increasing competition among banks and stability?

Madonna in Art, 2004 A celebration of the pop goddess at every stage of her career and a testament to her unique global impact, this compilation features artwork by over a hundred artists, including Andrew Logan, Al Hirschfeld, and Donna Lief. The images range from Madonna as an erotic dancer to the dignified figure of Eva Peron in Evita.

The Racialisation of British Policing Simon Holdaway, 1996-03-06 Drawing extensively on his own and others' research, Simon Holdaway argues that to understand manifestations of race within and outside the police, we need to analyse processes of racialisation previously ignored by the untheoretical emphases of much of criminology. Importantly, he analyses how 'race' is manifested within the organisational and cultural contexts of British policing. Laced with quotations from research, contemporary policy documents and other sources, this is a graphic and compelling account of racialised relations within police work which will appeal to students on a very wide range of social science degrees, from sociology to police studies.

Faster James Gleick, 2000-09-05 From the bestselling, National Book Award-nominated author of Genius and Chaos, a bracing new work about the accelerating pace of change in today's world. Most of us suffer some degree of hurry sickness. a malady that has launched us into the epoch of the nanosecond, a need-everything-yesterday sphere dominated by cell phones, computers, faxes, and remote controls. Yet for all the hours, minutes, and even seconds being saved, we're still filling our days to the point that we have no time for such basic human activities as eating, sex, and relating to our families. Written with fresh insight and thorough research, Faster is a wise and witty look at a harried world not likely to slow down anytime soon.
