Cuentos de Newkirk Daniel B. Flores, 2015-12-09 Cuentos de Newkirk, is about the eastern Guadalupe county community of Newkirk, New Mexico. It traces the history of Newkirk back to its early days when the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad first came into the area in 1901 which led to the settlement of the area. The newborn community sprang up to meet the needs of the new railroad, its workers and their families. The new community was first known as Conant until its name was changed to Newkirk in 1910. The area was quickly populated as homesteaders were also attracted by the Homestead Act. They earned their living by ranching and farming their homesteads. Later, in the 1920s a new highway came into the area, a highway that would eventually evolve into U. S. Highway 66. The community adapted to help meet the needs of travelers on the new highway. The community boomed in the 1930s by construction workers who poured into the area to help build Conchas Dam. While most of the nation suffered in the throes of the Great Depression, businesses in Newkirk were re-vitalized by the construction of the dam and increasing traffic on Highway 66. The small community of Newkirk even had several nightclubs, some of which operated around the clock, to meet the needs of highway travelers and construction workers. The boom ended after Conchas Dam was completed. However, the community continued to rely on Highway 66 traffic. Unfortunately, that came to an end in the 1960s when Interstate 40 replaced Highway 66 and Newkirk found itself bypassed by the new four-lane road which passed through the area south of the historic old U. S. Highway 66. The many old crumbling buildings and houses in the Newkirk area today remain as silent reminders to its once glory days. Interstate 40 traffic zips by at seventy-five miles an hour. Only an infrequent car will take the single exit into the now mostly deserted community. There is a single gasoline station located at the intersection of the Conchas Dam road, NM 129, and the forgotten remains of old Route 66. Cuentos de Newkirk consists of a series of vignettes, each telling a story about the Newkirk of yore. Most of the information has been taken from old newspaper articles about Conant and Newkirk. Included are articles about many of the inhabitants who once considered Newkirk their home.

Race across America Charles B. Kastner, 2020-01-03 2020 Peace Corps Writers Paul Cowan Award for the Best Book of Non-Fiction On April 23, 1929, the second annual Transcontinental Foot Race across America, known as the Bunion Derby, was in its twenty-fifth day. Eddie the Sheik Gardner, an African American runner from Seattle, was leading the race across the Free Bridge over the Mississippi River. Along with the signature outfit that earned him his nickname—a white towel tied around his head, white shorts, and a white shirt—Gardner wore an American flag, a reminder to all who saw him run through the Jim Crow South that he was an American and the leader of the greatest footrace in the world. Kastner traces Gardner's remarkable journey from his birth in 1897 in Birmingham, Alabama, to his success in Seattle, Washington, as one of the top long-distance runners in the region, and finally to his participation in two transcontinental footraces where he risked his life, facing a barrage of harassment for having the audacity to compete with white runners. Kastner shows how Gardner's participation became a way to protest the endemic racism he faced, heralding the future of nonviolent efforts that would be instrumental to the civil rights movement. Shining a bright light on his extraordinary athletic accomplishments and his heroism on the dusty roads of America in the 1920s, Kastner gives Gardner and other black bunioneers the attention they so richly deserve.

The Great American Foot Race Andrew Speno,2017-04-04 This accessible and thoroughly researched nonfiction debut introduces young readers to a fascinating, little-known event—the Transcontinental Foot Race, which came to be known as the Bunion Derby. It is set in 1928, the height of the Roaring Twenties—a time of optimism, a time of excess, and the Age of Ballyhoo. Publicity-seeking Americans tried to outdo each other with outrageous stunts. Dance marathoners danced for days on end, pole-sitters sat atop flagpoles for weeks, trained athletes worked to beat records, and Charles Lindbergh made the first solo transatlantic flight. What could top this? Cyrus Avery, an ordinary Oklahoma businessman, teamed up with C. C. Pyle, the P. T. Barnum of Professional Sports, to hold a transcontinental foot race. More than 100 men of all races and nationalities started the race in California and faced all manner of obstacles—from extreme weather to poor food and living conditions, to prejudice to injury—to make the cross-country journey across the United States, ending in New York City. This Bunion Derby pushed human endurance to the limits in an unforgettable show of ballyhoo. This book is written in a folksy style that perfectly captures the mood and tone of the late 1920s and includes archival photographs, a map of the derby route, stats, a bibliography, and source notes.
