Autumn's Dancing Leaves Ralph Hunter,1999-03-01 Eddie didn't favor anyone in his family. Fair, blonde, and green-eyed, he stood in sharp contrast to the other darker-complected, dark-haired, blue-eyed members. The difference created a rift in the family fabric and his mother singled him out for abuse, irrationally holding him responsible for the family's turmoil. Little Eddie struggled with the severity of his maltreatment but, by age eleven, could no longer handle the circumstances of his life. He decided his only escape would be to die, that by conscious will, he could simply resolve to give up life and cease to exist. Eddie's mind, alerted to his decision, and believing the ultimate goal for any entity was to continue, regardless of form or quality of life, was determined to survive. Panicked at the threat of cessation, his mind made a desperate decision -- it fractured his personality and created Randy from traits that had been repressed in Eddie. Randy, a tough, defiant individual, was created to bring new energy, new life, and stand in defense of the defeated, accepting Eddie. Rising to the challenge, he accepted the responsibility of his creation and was fiercely focused to protecting Eddie while endeavoring to create new circumstances for the life they shared. Randy was proud of his efforts to save Eddie. He knew he was Eddie's paladin, his champion, created for a noble purpose -- to bring Eddie back from the brink of oblivion. After many struggles, Randy's efforts appeared to be successful and the mind considered the possibility of enjoying the existence he'd insured. It pondered the idea of Eddie being involved with the world, rather than merely persisting through the time allotted for the life. Aware of Eddie's inability to interact with the world around him, the mind again fractured the personality creating Jesse, a new facet, an aesthetic personality, focused to tender feelings of love and friendship -- and aspects which determine quality of life. Jesse felt he was created to experience emotions and appreciate beauty, to evolve the repressed side of the personality, to bring stability to the entity. He believed he was born to search for love, to find the emotional equilibrium that would bring the separate identities into harmony. Developed from suppressed characteristics, Jesse was creative and confident, loving and inquisitive, charming and fun loving. And he was on a quest -- determined to achieve his goal. Without Eddie's awareness of them, Randy and Jesse sought to balance their existence and hoped they were achieving what they saw as a normal life until Jesse experienced an incident which shattered that belief and forced them to realize they had not progressed as far as they thought. Jesse's realization that he had made a terrible mistake was devastating. Jumping to a conclusion, Randy, the controlling personality, in his determination to fend off any challenges to them, felt he must take over to handle the crisis in an effort to protect them...

The Fall of Autumn Leaves Ronald A. Williams,2021-11-19 Cameron Walkes is a Barbadian-born novelist who hasn't sold anything for nearly a year when he is encouraged to write an autobiography. A reluctant Cameron knows he is facing many obstacles. What lessons could he teach? How could he explain the recurrent dreams that had gradually increased his stress? Despite his trepidation, Cameron writes the first words of his autobiography later that night. As his life story laboriously begins to take shape, Cameron traces his development from a poor fishing village in Barbados, through athletic and teaching careers, and finally to attain a role as president of an American college. While chronicling his pursuit of the American Dream, Cameron also details why he left academia to take up writing as a profession, and shares a glimpse into his mindset as his physical prowess declines, leaving him with no choice but to face his own mortality. But just as life comes full circle, fate intervenes and provides an unexpected ending to Cameron's story. In this intriguing novel, a Barbadian immigrant who reluctantly begins penning his autobiography in an effort to boost his writing career embarks on a journey inward to reflect on his experiences.

The Winds of Autumn Jim R. Woolard,2008-12 Woolard is an impressive writer Meticulous attention to detail, time, place and good old-fashioned storytelling. Cameron Judd Attacked in the dead of night, Blake and Blaine Tyler lost their parents to the savage Shawnee. Their first sister, Sarah, was spared- and taken captive by the war party. The brothers set off across the Ohio River to rescue her. Their quest takes an unexpected turn when they cross the path of Judge Ferrenden's spoiled daughter, Hannah, another Shawnee captive. The brothers know freeing two Shawnee captives at once is nearly impossible. But love for their sister and respect for all women left them no choice. Two worlds collided on the open frontier, locked in a desperate struggle for survival and freedom. And in the midst of the fight, a spirit was born, as wild and free as the land itself.

The Return of Autumn Vin Craig,2011-08-25 Vincent works as a photojournalist full time. For more than a dozen years this award winning photojournalist has photographed and interviewed some of the worlds leading politicians, entertainers, and athletes. Having an occupation where the scenery, faces, and often the climate changes every day provides the atmosphere that is helpful in sparking his creative juices. Although Vincent is employed as a photojournalist writing remains his passion. His talent for the craft was discover by his Elementary School English teacher. After reading an assignment written by Vincent she recommended him to the school newspaper to write a sports column. Vincent has been writing every since that time. Whether its a computer keyboard or an ink pen and a napkin from a fast food establishment Vincent takes advantage of every moment to write something new practically everyday. He had a great appreciation for those who in this high-tech age still find the time to read. For without the eyes of a ready reader are the means of transportation of words from the pages and episodes to the hearts and minds of those who still enjoy a journalistic journey.

Carolina Autumn Carol Lynch Williams, 2001-10 Fourteen-year-old Carolina has been through a terrible loss. Her clear vision and sense of humor eventually help her find her way to a life with new purpose and hope.

The Herald of Autumn J. M. Guillen, 2016-10-10 There are things unseen in the world of men. Uncanny horrors stalk us from the shadows. Fortunately for the children of men, there is one who protects us from the darkness that we cannot see. Every year with the death of summer, a remnant of humanity's strangest dreamings awakens: The Herald of Autumn. Wherever he wanders, hungry hounds ghost along with him and the frigid wind of the hallows follows close behind. He hunts the creatures that linger in shadows, protecting mankind from the weirding and the nameless. This Autumn, however, is different from those in the past. When the Herald awakens to the taunting of the mysterious and elusive Old Man Coyote, he is immediately thrown into a battle for his very existence. As he matches wits against a shaman from another age, he learns sinister truths of an ancient abomination and of darkness that lurks behind the world. Most importantly, he learns of the end of all things.
