Fifty Years with Car and Driver Marty Padgett,2005-10 50 Years with Car and Driver commemorates the golden anniversary of the most popular car magazine on the planet. But more than that, 50 Years with Car and Driver tells the story of the American automobile and how the editors of the magazine witnessed that history and reported on it, firsthand. A look at how Car and Driver evolved from its beginnings as Sports Cars Illustrated, in the able hands of great automotive journalists such as Ken Purdy and John Christy, and then came into it own as the musclecar era of the Sixties dawned. Writers such as David E. Davis, Jr., Brock Yates and Patrick Bedard helped to craft a literary car magazine that drew as much inspiration from Tom Wolfe's writing as it did from the great cars of the day. Through the Seventies the magazine's reputation solidified as the technical authority on new cars, and the literary tradition continued with such writers as Don Sherman and author P.J. O'Rourke. Throughout the Eighties, the magazine prospered even when its writers went off the deep end - literally, getting stranded in Mexico during a Baja comparison test. Car and Driver watched over the virtual rebirth of the American car during that decade, with the renaissance at Ford through the Taurus and the revival of the Corvette, while keeping its lock on the strongest feature writing in the auto magazines with stories like Brock Yates's thirty-years-past observance of the death of James Dean. The Nineties saw Car and Driver continue its leadership as the world's largest-selling automotive magazine. From the introduction of the Acura NSX and the Mazda Miata to the brand-new Mustangs and Corvettes that have come in just the past years, Car and Driver has been the authority that readers trust when it comes to 0-60 times, road tests and reviews. Fifty Years with Car and Driver combines classic stories from the magazine, commentary by former staffers including the author, vintage and modern photos of the hottest and most important cars reviewed by the magazines, as well as stories from behind the scenes - with all the attitude, expertise and visual excitement readers have come to expect from the magazine itself.--BOOK JACKET.

Car Show Journal Car Journals,2019-11-22 Car Show Journal: Notebook for Recording Year, Make, Model, and Modifications, Great Gift for Automobile Enthusiasts This journal has space for you to write down the show (date and location) where you saw the car, as well as the make, model, and color of the car. Then you have space to get to the real point of the show-- the modifications and condition of the car. Did the owner totally rebuild the mechanical system to be identical to original condition, or did they trick it out with a totally new engine to make it a street rod? What is the attention to detail in the restoration? What was the reasoning behind the modification (a question you can ask yourself, but would never dream of asking the owner). On the other side, you have a Notes section where you can write things like contact information (if you get it), what you think the value of the car is, the overall quality, and if any of the parts used interest you for your own restoration work. What's the point of going to an amazing car show if you don't record and log your favorite parts? The cover of this particular journal features a flashy red Porsche, for foreign car enthusiasts.
