The Complete Idiot's Guide to Online Genealogy Rhonda

R. McClure, 2002-01-01 A complete guide to researching genealogical questions online explains how to find records by using the Internet, how to create a home page for oneself, software and hardware needs, available genealogical Web sites, and more. The book covers the basics of both gathering family data and online searches.

Unleashed Calvin T. Dog, 1998-01-01 Welcome to the world of Calvin, an unusually perceptive and astute canine with great insight and a hint of rogue, whose keen observation skills work overtime on society and culture, philosophy, and theology.

Orwellian Ireland Brian Nugent, 2007-10-29 Inspired by the book Stasiland, this work is an attempt to see if some of the state practices that flourished in Communist Eastern Europe might be replicated in modern Ireland. It goes into the question of intelligence agencies, what agencies are active in Ireland, how they harass dissidents, their use of modern technology and their role in secretly supporting paramilitary groups in Ireland and around the world. It includes a lot of first hand testimony of state harassment, and even torture, which is on a par with what happened in countries like East Germany. Finally it concludes with some searching questions about the real government policies being pursued in Ireland.

Children, Citizenship, and Environment Bronwyn

Hayward, 2012 Her comparative discussion with the US and UK draws on lessons from New Zealand, a country where young citizens often express a strong sense of personal responsibility for their planet but where many children also face shocking social conditions. Hayward develops a 'SEEDS' model of ecological citizenship education (Social agency, Environmental Education, Embedded justice, Decentred deliberative democracy and Self transcendence). The discussion considers how the SEEDs model can support young citizens' democratic imagination and develop their 'handprint' for social justice. From eco-worriers and citizen-scientists to streetwise sceptics, Children, Citizenship and Environment identifies a variety of forms of citizenship and discusses why many approaches make it more difficult, not easier, for young citizens to effect change.

Intersex Catherine Harper, 2020-09-10 Intersex is the condition whereby an individual is born with biological features that are simultaneously perceived as male and female. Ranging from the ambiguous genitalia of the true 'hermaphrodite' to the 'mildly or internally intersexed', the condition may be as common as cleft palate. Like cleft palate, it is hidden and surgically altered, but for very different reasons. This important book draws heavily on the personal testimony of intersexed individuals, their loved ones, and medical carers. The impact of early sex-assignment surgery on an individual's later life is examined within the context of ethical and clinical questions. Harper challenges the conventional and radical 'treatment' of intersexuality through non-consensual infant sex-assignment surgery. In doing so she exposes powerful myths, taboos, and constructions of gender - the perfect phallus, a bi-polar model of gender and the infallibility of medical decisions. Handling sensitive material with care, this book deepens our understanding of a condition that has itself only been medically understood in recent years.

The Undergrounds of the Phantom of the Opera J.

Hogle, 2016-04-30 This is the most comprehensive analytical study ever done of The Phantom of the Opera in its many different versions from the original Gaston Leroux novel to the present day. It proposes answers to the question, 'why do we keep needing this story told and retold in the Western world?' by revealing the history of deep cultural tensions that underlie the novel and each major adaptation. Using extensive historical and textual evidence and drawing on perspectives from several theories of cultural study, this book argues that we need this tale told and reconfigured because it provides us ways to both confront and disguise how we have fashioned our senses of identity in the Western middle class. The Phantom of the Opera - in varying ways over time - turns out like the 'Gothic' tradition it extends, to be deeply connected to Western self-fashioning in the face of conflicted attitudes about class, gender, race, religious beliefs, Freudian psychology, economic and international tensions, and especially the shifting and permeable boundaries between 'high' and 'low' culture. This book should interest all students of the history of Western culture, as well as those especially fascinated by Gothic fiction, opera, musical theatre, and film.

Stronger Than Metal Lewis T. Bershell, 2021-02-22 This is a story about two people who met at work. They were from two different cultural backgrounds: Lewis, southern black, and Chris, northern white. The story is how they overcame every challenge together, what they have and still are accomplishing together, and how even though they are from two different worlds they are still the same. 2

La coscienza luccicante Maria Grazia Tolomeo, Paola Segà Serra, 2012-01-04T00:00:00+01:00 Questo testo rappresenta non soltanto il catalogo di una mostra, ma anche il risultato del lavoro scientifico di un gruppo di studiosi specialisti o attenti osservatori di fenomeni di Arte Visiva che difficilmente raggiungono il grande pubblico. Il catalogo contiene tra gli altri i saggi di: Silvia Bordini, Maurizio Calvesi, Maria Cristina Cremaschi, Ginestra Calzolari, Lorenzo Taiuti, Nico Garrone, oltre ai testi dei curatori della mostra Paola Segà Serra Zanetti e Maria Grazia Tolomeo ed una intervista a H. Szeeman a cura di Mara Folini. Il catalogo illustra puntualmente ogni sezione della mostra: la Video- Rassegna storica, la Video Poesia, la Video Danza, il Video Teatro, l'Arte della Realtà Virtuale, l'Arte in Web e l'Arte in CD Rom. Ogni sezione è corredata da schede bio-bibliografiche filologicamente documentate. Inoltre ogni artista, protagonista dei migliori esiti della Video-arte, è considerato secondo un'ottica monografica, analizzando la sua poetica, i suoi percorsi espositivi e le fonti scritte secondo un lavoro di accurata selezione. Ci sono quindi le bio-bibliografie, il più possibile aggiornate dei maggiori videoartisti, tra gli altri: Orlan, Mona Hatoum, Steve McQueen, Pipilotti Rist, Gillian Wearing, Mariko Mori, Gina Pane, Maurizio Camerani, Donatella Landi. La parte dedicata ai giovani inglesi, americani, giapponesi, italiani offre spunti interessanti anche per chi si affacci per la prima volta sull'argomento. Infine, si offre una rassegna, seppure non esaustiva, ma il più possibile vasta, di bibliografia generale sull'argomento. Questo volume rappresenta quindi il primo risultato di un apparato didattico su tematiche, in Italia, ancora troppo élitarie e circoscritte alla cerchia degli addetti ai lavori.

Total Solar Eclipses and How to Observe Them Martin Mobberley, 2007-08-03 This is the ultimate, easy-to-read guide for eclipse-chasers which includes everything an eclipse chaser needs. There are some important eclipses coming up in the years ahead and the technology available to amateur astronomers is improving fast. The book provides eclipse virgins with a good feeling for what a trip abroad to an eclipse is like - including a humorous look at all the things that can and have gone wrong. Travel details are included, essential in these days of high-security. And of course the first part of the book contains a wealth of information about solar eclipses and what can be observed only during a total eclipse.

The Oxford Handbook of Political Representation in Liberal Democracies Robert Rohrschneider, Jacques Thomassen, 2020-07-28 The Handbook of Political Representation in Liberal Democracies offers a state-of-the-art assessment of the functioning of political representation in liberal democracies. In 34 chapters the world's leading scholars on the various aspects of political representation address eight broad themes: The concept and theories of political representation, its history and the main requisites for its development; elite orientations and behavior; descriptive representation; party government and representation; non-electoral forms of political participation and how they relate to political representation; the challenges to representative democracy originating from the growing importance of non-majoritarian institutions and social media; the rise of populism and its consequences for the functioning of representative democracy; the challenge caused by economic and political globalization: what does it mean for the functioning of political representation at the national level and is it possible to develop institutions of representative democracy at a level above the state that meet the normative criteria of representative democracy and are supported by the people? The various chapters offer a comprehensive review of the literature on the various aspects of political representation. The main organizing principle of the Handbook is the chain of political representation, the chain connecting the interests and policy preferences of the people to public policy via political parties, parliament, and government. Most of the chapters assessing the functioning of the chain of political representation and its various links are based on original comparative political research. Comparative research on political representation and its various subfields has developed dramatically over the last decades so that even ten years ago a Handbook like this would have looked totally different.
