Donald Alston

Donald Donald Upham Reed, 1999-12-03 DONALDS WORLD leads on a young boys trip to the top of the tallest building between San Francisco and Los Angeles during the 1930s. When he returned home he climbed a 60-foot tree in his back yard to see from a distance where he had been. Who is this boy? The answer comes in chapter 2 -- from birth to his mothers commitment to a state insane asylum. Thirty years would pass before she is released under his care and guardianship. Chapter 3 explores the family tree and adventures by those who made the Oklahoma land rush of 1888 and their departure later because of crop failure. It took Donalds great great grandfather 65 days in all kinds of weather to return to Tennessee from Oklahoma. One can take the same trip today in less than 100 hours! Mrs. C. Jackson arrives on the scene in Chapter 4 to take care of Donald and his older brother, Stanley. Donald didnt know until she died many years later that her middle name was Charity. The headline for Chapter 6 is The White Avenue Gang. Donald recalls being only a bystander when the rich kid was tied to a church tree on White Avenue and one of his captives rode the boys red and white motor-bike around the block. He and his brother looked like the Balkan who assassinated Archduke Ferdinand to start World War I. Elsewhere the book involves Donalds school days, summer work in the Sierra before joining the Navy and being saved by bombs that crushed two Japanese cities. He cast his first vote for Harry Truman. After that his presidential votes went only to Republicans. During college Marcia and Don were married before their sophomore year. After graduation Don joined UP and 34 year career followed by 10 years as a journalism professor at Oklahoma State University. He retired in 1994 and now lives in Tulsa, Oklahoma. 7543 S. 70th East Ave, Tulsa, Ok 74133 918 494-3634 E-mail dreed@aol.com

Donald Donald Anderson, 2014-03-21 A story with many facets: a country bumpkin who grew up during the great depression of the 1930s to face events that will bring you tears of both sadness and laughter. His beloved wife slips away in his presence and his wonder if she really did come back to say goodbye. Laugh with the Barbary apes of Gibraltar. The challenge of teaching a first aid class on childbirth to mothers, a priest and teenagers. A singing marriage proposal delivered at a cruise ship talent show. Flew 22 combat missions on a B-17 bomber in WWII. The battle for legislation requiring training in life support for ambulance personnel. A close-up visit with polar bears near Hudson Bay. High tea at the Empress Hotel in Victoria, B.C. Own and operate a radio station. Play the piano for fashion shows. Singing in a barbershop harmony chorus. Standup comic and MC. Dealing with bloody breakfast eggs in Fiji. Near disaster with a home-built gyrocopter. What he claims are the world's best radio commercials. His invention of a cannon that shoots horse manure. Creating successful school programs in fire safety education. The appendix with stories about the world's worst fire and worst U.S. fire (not Chicago or San Francisco). His sermon for a Lutheran church Laymen's Sunday service is a poem on how the fire department saved the day for Santa Claus. A photo of his crying pumpkin baby at Halloween. The secrets of his hilarious magic act. Lots of aphorisms, recipes and other wastes of time. This guy has been busy! This is a fun read.

Biography of Donald Gordon McEdward Donald

McEdward, 2018-05-09 This is an autobiography written by Donald Gordon McEdward. He recalls the antics of his youth and his time spent in the Navy and Border Patrol. His humorous and adventurous tales will leave you wanting to read more.

Moments in Time: A Memoir Donald F. Megnin, 2010-01-13

Upon their retirement, the author and his wife purchased a home in Florida where they live in the winters as well as in Erie Village

(a suburb of Syracuse) in which they spent their summers before selling their town house. They joined the Sugar Mill Country Club in New Smyrna Beach, Florida after becoming Florida residents. They have watched the transitions of life in which all families participate with the death of their parents, the marriage of their sons, the birth of their grandchildren and making gradual accommodations to old age and their own eventual demise. While both the author and his wife enjoy playing golf, Scrabble, cards and other recreational activities, he has spent several years giving speeches, writings articles, novels, and attempting to demonstrate the transitions through which everyone journeys during the course of their lifetime.

The Education of Young Donald Donald Horne,1988

Howard Down-Home Donald E. Howard,2005-09-01 Howard Down-Home is the true story of an American life. The author writes about his life while growing up on a farm in rural eastern North Carolina. From his earliest days he became familiar with corn, tobacco, cotton, chickens, hogs, cattle, mules and all kinds of farm machinery. There were days of fun and days of hard work. Fun days included riding his bicycle across the open fields on frozen snow. There were days of exploring the woodlands alone near his home. There were trips into the woods to pick huckleberries. There were nights spent sleeping out in the open during summer and creative ideas employed in catching chickens for market. Hard workdays were those spent in the tobacco fields pulling green tobacco leaves for drying. Long days were spent in the cornfields loading dry ears of corn into a mule-drawn cart for transportation to the corncrib. There were hot days spent in the top of a tobacco barn hanging tobacco for drying. And there were long days behind mule-drawn plows preparing land for planting and cultivating young crops. After the farm the author tells about his four years in the United States Air Force. The military offered a very different way of life, one the author found interesting, humorous, adventurous, and enriching. His travels with the Air Force took him to many different stations and adventures. Upon leaving the military the author decided to train to become a professional educator. After completing his educational training to the doctoral level he spent 34 four years in education where he served as a teacher and administrator at all levels of education from kindergarten to the university graduate level. The adventures, people and experiences the author encountered during a long personal voyage are shared in this true story of an American life, a life that took advantage of opportunities in the land of the free.

Acquiring Light Donald Dickinson,2018-03-15 Rags to riches adventure story with humor and action. Building a multi-million dollar entity from a few dollars, never giving up against all odds, buying other businesses that add growth and employing over 350 full-time associates who shared the success. This was a great feeling of acquiring the light. - Don

Growing Up in Simpler Times...memories of Lincoln Park
Donald W. Wallace,Bruce M. Wallace,2013-06-28 Donald Walter Wallace has spent the majority of his life in Lincoln Park, Michigan. From his childhood days, which are vividly described in this short story book, to his teenage years where he was thrust into adulthood at the age of 17, having entered the Army in 1949 and a few short months later being wounded in combat in the Korean Conflict at the age of 18 years, to his adult years where he worked many different jobs locally including 20 years of service to the Lincoln Park Police Department. He married his wife Jean, also from Lincoln Park, in 1955 and raised three children, Patti, Donald and Bruce. Two years ago, his son Don gave him a laptop to explore the internet. Don quickly began writing and publishing stories of his childhood to everyone's astonishment. He quickly gained a following of current and ex Lincoln Parker's who read his stories and always wanted more. Due to this popularity and his unique gift of making you feel like you are there with him in the story, he was encouraged to compile his stories into this book. We hope you enjoy the stories and that they take you back to a simpler time and place.

Clean Hands and Survival Donald Alston, 2012-04-22 Clean Hands and Survival is a spoof on the law office scene in San Francisco during the 1980's. While trying to launch a career in one the many boutique firms in San Francisco, Adam is confronted with many challenges. His adoring female boss and her callous boss keeps him guessing. In addition, he is disillusioned with the legal profession; for the day-to-day practice is far from the lofty intellectual environment of law school. And his girlfriend, like many others, is having a difficult time passing the California Bar Examination and won't marry him until she is a lawyer.

Billy and Me Donald Max, 2016-11-29 A story of two brothers: William and Donald Max. When one goes off to fight in World War II, he leaves his only brother behind to grow up in Paterson, NJ during the 1940's. The story is a depiction of coming of age in the post-Depression era and how our missing servicemen had a profound effect on the families they left behind. It illustrates how, in those uncertain times, life remained relatively normal on the home front, while war raged on overseas. Most of all, it is a tribute to the sacrifice and courage of one brother, Billy, to defend the freedoms of his family and the country he loved.

Donald L. Mcintire - This Ain't No Bull! Marsha R. Mcintire, Seth Luther Mcintire, 2014-06-28 A WWII Vet tells his stories of growing up on the banks of the Current River in Shannon County, Missouri, surviving battles on the South Pacific, returning from war to the love of his life, and later moving back to his home on the river. Life takes us full circle, and this memoir is full of laughter and love as we glimpse a way of life long gone.

Finding Forever Donald Hale, 2020-08-27 Starting out life on a farm in the 1940s, drifting through the 1950s as changes were coming to the rural condition and surviving the turbulent 1960s allowed a young man to experience things out of traditional bucolic life of a farm boy. Growing up, finding something outside of the farm, finding women and finding himself are part of the story. Finding his partner for life is the story.

Donaldgreen.htm Introduction

In this digital age, the convenience of accessing information at our fingertips has become a necessity. Whether its research papers, eBooks, or user manuals, PDF files have become the preferred format for sharing and reading documents. However, the cost associated with purchasing PDF files can sometimes be a barrier for many individuals and organizations. Thankfully, there are numerous websites and platforms that allow users to download free PDF files legally. In this article, we will explore some of the best platforms to download free PDFs. One of the most popular platforms to download free PDF files is Project Gutenberg. This online library offers over 60,000 free eBooks that are in the public domain. From classic literature to historical documents, Project Gutenberg provides a wide range of PDF files that can be downloaded and enjoyed on various devices. The website is user-friendly and allows users to search for specific titles or browse through different categories. Another reliable platform for downloading Donaldgreen.htm free PDF files is Open Library. With its vast collection of over 1 million eBooks, Open Library has something for every reader. The website offers a seamless experience by providing options to borrow or download PDF files. Users simply need to create a free account to access this treasure trove of knowledge. Open Library also allows users to contribute by uploading and sharing their own PDF files, making it a collaborative platform for book enthusiasts. For those interested in academic resources, there are websites dedicated to providing free PDFs of research papers and scientific articles. One such website is Academia.edu, which allows researchers and scholars to share their work with a global audience. Users can download PDF files of research papers, theses, and dissertations covering a wide range of subjects. Academia.edu also provides a platform for discussions and networking within the academic community. When it comes to downloading Donaldgreen.htm free PDF files of magazines, brochures, and catalogs, Issuu is a popular choice. This digital publishing platform hosts a vast collection of publications from around the world. Users can search for specific titles or explore various categories and genres. Issuu offers a seamless reading experience with its user-friendly interface and allows users to download PDF files for offline reading. Apart from dedicated platforms, search engines also play a crucial role in finding free PDF files. Google, for instance, has an advanced search feature that allows users to filter results by file type. By specifying the file type as "PDF," users can find websites that offer free PDF downloads on a specific topic. While downloading Donaldgreen.htm free PDF files is convenient, it's important to note that copyright laws must be respected. Always ensure that the PDF files you download are legally available for free. Many authors and publishers voluntarily provide free PDF versions of their work, but it's essential to be cautious and verify the authenticity of the source before downloading Donaldgreen.htm. In conclusion, the internet offers numerous platforms and websites that allow users to download free PDF files legally. Whether it's classic literature, research papers, or magazines, there is something for everyone. The platforms mentioned in this article, such as Project Gutenberg, Open Library, Academia.edu, and Issuu, provide access to a vast collection of PDF files. However, users should always be cautious and verify the legality of the source before downloading Donaldgreen.htm any PDF files. With these platforms, the world of PDF downloads is just a click away.
