The Sultan and the Mice Joan de Boer,2007 This story, of Arabian origin, links a series of events in such a way that the situation gets progressively complicated to the end of the story, which takes us back to where we started. In all the scenes, sense of humour appears along with witty and absurd situations. Bearing in mind the lucid nature of the circular tale, the formal repetitions work effectively to connect with young readers.

A Cat Cafe Christmas Codi Gary,2022-10-04 A laugh-out-loud, opposites attract romance about three of the world's most beloved C's: Christmas, Coffee, and Cats. Veterinarian and animal lover Kara Ingalls needs a Christmas miracle. Opening the Meow and Furrever Cat Café to find loving homes for adorable, adoptable cats was a dream come true—but with more cats than customers, it's quickly turning into a nightmare. If Kara can't figure out some way to get the café out of the red, it won't last past the holidays. Marketing guru Ben Reese may be annoyingly smart and frustratingly bossy, but when he hatches a plan to put the café in the "green" by Christmas, Kara realizes that she'd be a fool to turn down his help. And so what if he turns out to be an excellent problem solver and nerdy-hot—he can't even handle fostering one little kitten. She needs to keep their relationship professional and focus on saving the cafe. But if Ben and Kara can set aside their differences—and find homes for all the cats by Christmas—they might discover that, by risking their hearts, they'll have their own purr-fect holiday . . . together.

Nibbling Your Nails Paula Merlán,2022-04-30 Nibbling Your Nails is a sunny, imaginative story that will make the little ones understand, in a fun way, the importance of developing good habits. Sara is an expert in nail-biting. She practices many times during the day: when she waters the plants, when she looks at the stars with her giant telescope, even when she's in math class! Sometimes she puts so much effort into it that she bites her finger! However, no matter how much she hurts herself, Sara does not stop biting her nails. But she does it unwittingly! Sarah's teeth and stomach don't seem to like that habit. They would be much happier eating real food, like apples or peppers... at least they don't scratch! One afternoon Grandma comes home with a great idea... She always arrives with a big laugh on her face, games, and endless conversations, but this time she brings her an unexpected gift. A gift that will make Sara use the clippers once and for all!
