Gyermekkor a vásznan Támba Renátó, 2017-07-20 Támba Renátó (1987-) író, gyermekkor-kutató. Doktori értekezését 2016-ban védte meg a Debreceni Egyetemen, gyermekkor-történeti ikonográfia tudományterületen. Jelen mű disszertációja javított változata, s az alföldi iskola festőinek gyermekábrázolásait járja körbe a gyermekszemlélet történeti kutatásának tükrében. „A szerző olyan kutatási témát választott, amely a szélesebb értelemben vett interdiszciplináris kultúratudományok területén belül is hiánypótló jelentőségű. Képleírásai egyszerre szakszerűek és átéltek, tárgyiasak és asszociatívak, valamint referencia-gazdagok, irodalmi és művészettörténeti szempontból egyaránt.” Dr. Vitéz Ferenc – főiskolai docens Debreceni Református Hittudományi Egyetem, Kommunikáció- és Médiatudományi tanszék „Támba Renátó írása rávilágít arra, hogy a képekről kiolvasható legjellemzőbb narratívák szerint a gyermek többnyire függelékként jelenik meg. Egyaránt lehet a gyámolító anya függeléke, a családi gazdaság folytonosságát szavatoló munkaerő, a paraszti életideált megtestesítő személy, a termékenység potenciális hordozója, esetleg a megújulás szimbóluma. E mű tekintélyes képanyag elemzésére vállalkozik, s fontos neveléstudományi eredményekre jut a kutatómetodológia és az eredmények tekintetében egyaránt.” Dr. Fenyő Imre – egyetemi adjunktus Debreceni Egyetem, Pedagógia Tanszék

Ma vision de l'Europe et de la mondialisation Lionel Jospin, 2001

British Foreign Policy and the Anglican Church Timothy Blewett, Adrian Hyde-Price, 2021-08-27 Whilst the views of leaders within the Church of England are frequently canvassed during periods of national crisis, little attention has been devoted to finding out whether there are Church perspectives on contemporary foreign policy issues. The Church of England has not been regarded as an actor with a strong input into international affairs, preferring to speak out on domestic and individual issues. Yet world politics present fundamental ethical dilemmas which call for careful deliberation and the Church has a role to play both in shaping the debate and arguing for particular policy directions. To what extent is national policy shaped by underlying Christian values. Do the campaigning efforts of faith groups really exert influence and guide the development of state policy? This book seeks to elucidate whether there are particular Christian perspectives on the role that Great Britain should play in the world today. It investigates the role that the Church of England has played in contemporary foreign policy issues: including the use of force - intervention, counter-terrorism and arms sales - and overseas trade, aid and debt forgiveness. The book brings together senior individuals from within the Church, academia and non-governmental organisations to investigate these various ethical dilemmas.

Sonic Interventions Sylvia Mieszkowski, Joy Smith, Marijke de Valck, 2015-07-14 Sonic Interventions makes a compelling case for the importance of sound in theorizing literature, subjectivity and culture. Sound is usually understood as our second sense and – as our belief in a visually dominated culture prevails – remains of secondary interest. Western cultures are considered to be predominantly visual, while other societies are thought to place more importance on the acoustic dimension. This volume questions these assumptions by examining how sound differs from, and acts in relationship to, the visual. It moves beyond theoretical dichotomies (between the visual and the sonic, the oral and literature) and, instead, investigates sonic interventions in their often multi-faceted forms. The case studies deal with political appropriations of music and sounds, they explore the poetic use of the sonic in novels and plays, they develop theoretical concepts out of sonic phenomena, and pertain to identity formation and the practice of mixing in hip hop, opera and dancehall sessions. Ultimately, the book brings to the fore what roles sound may play for the formation of gendered identity, for the stabilization or questioning of race as a social category, and the conception of place. Their intricate interventions beckon critical attention and offer rich material for cultural analysis.

What's Love Got to Do with It? Sheri Downs, 2013-03 All of humanity is looking for real love. Many of us have been disillusioned in our search and have even concluded that it only exists in fairy tales and Hollywood. Wars are fought over it, lives have been lost over it, studies have researched it, and songs are even sung about it, yet the quest goes on to discover its true meaning. In her book, Whats Love Got to Do With It?, pastor, author, singer, and motivational speaker Sheri Downs takes you on a journey in search of real love. Through a shattered childhood to a devastating divorce and life as a single parent, Sheri Downs demonstrates that even the most oppressive situations can be overcome. Her story will first bring you to tears, then leave you hopeful, believing that real love does actually exist. You will turn the pages in anticipation as she reveals how God's love emerges in every circumstance. She is a life transformed by the real love that never fails. You will not want to put this book down until you too have the answer to the daunting question, Whats love got to do with it?

Composing Women Elfriede Reissig, Leon Stefaniya, 2022-12-02 This volume presents fifteen musicological perspectives on the creativity of women composers and the question of 'femininity' in Southeastern-European musical cultures from 1918 on. In the questions about and beyond a 'female aesthetics', socio-cultural approaches to the lives of creative women prove to be indispensable for contemporary musicological gender research, because highly complex facts of musical life and social realities in political systems cannot be separated from each other. By this means the exclusion and marginalization of women composers in the national and international music establishment, as well as strategies for overcoming these systems, are made visible and brought to consciousness. This volume therefore focusses on the social, cultural, and biological preconditions of cultural action, and intends to arouse curiosity for multi-layered realities; it aims to increase the reception of the compositional oeuvre of women composers from Southeastern Europe by the global music scene, the musicological discourse, and an engaged audience.

First published in 1916, Democracy and Education is regarded as the seminal work on public education by one of the most important scholars of the century.
