Drawn to Purpose Martha H. Kennedy, 2018-02-14 Published in partnership with the Library of Congress, Drawn to Purpose: American Women Illustrators and Cartoonists presents an overarching survey of women in American illustration, from the late nineteenth into the twenty-first century. Martha H. Kennedy brings special attention to forms that have heretofore received scant notice--cover designs, editorial illustrations, and political cartoons--and reveals the contributions of acclaimed cartoonists and illustrators, along with many whose work has been overlooked. Featuring over 250 color illustrations, including eye-catching original art from the collections of the Library of Congress, Drawn to Purpose provides insight into the personal and professional experiences of eighty women who created these works. Included are artists Roz Chast, Lynda Barry, Lynn Johnston, and Jillian Tamaki. The artists' stories, shaped by their access to artistic training, the impact of marriage and children on careers, and experiences of gender bias in the marketplace, serve as vivid reminders of social change during a period in which the roles and interests of women broadened from the private to the public sphere. The vast, often neglected, body of artistic achievement by women remains an important part of our visual culture. The lives and work of the women responsible for it merit much further attention than they have received thus far. For readers who care about cartooning and illustration, Drawn to Purpose provides valuable insight into this rich heritage.

The Semantic Web Yong Yu, 2009-12 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the fourth Asian Semantic Web Conference, ASWC 2009, held in Shanghai, China, in December 2009. The 35 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 63 submissions. These submissions cover a broad range of topics including, query languages and optimization, rule and logics, scalable reasoning, semantic content generation, database and semantics, semantic web services, eSemantics (e.g., e-Business, e-Science, e-Learning, e-Culture, e-Health), social web and semantics, semantic graph mining, security for semantic web, ontology modeling, ontology management, to name a few.

The Semantic Web Yong-jiang Yu, Ying Ding, 2009-12-15 The Annual Asian Semantic Web Conference is one of the largest regional events in Asia with focused topics related to the Semantic Web. With the decade-round endeavor of Semantic Web believers, researchers and practitioners, the Semantic Web has made remarkable progress recently. It has raised significant attention from US and UK governments, as well as the European Commission who are willing to deploy Semantic Web technologies to enhance the transparency of eGovernment. The Linked Open Data initiative is on its way to convert the current document Web into a data Web and to further enabling various data and service mashups. The fast adoption of Semantic Web technologies in medical and life sciences has created impressive showcases to the world. All these efforts are a crucial step toward enabling the take-off and the success of the Semantic Web. The First Asian Semantic Web Conference was successfully held in China in 2006. With the following editions in Korea in 2007 and Thailand in 2008, it fostered a regional forum for connecting researchers and triggering innovations. This year, the 4th Asian Semantic Web Conference was held in Shanghai, China. We received 63 submissions from Asia, Europe, and North America, and 25 papers were accepted (the acceptance rate is around 40%). Each submission was reviewed by at least three members of the Program Committee. The Chairs moderated the discussion of conflict reviews or invited external reviewers to reach the final decisions.

Hidden Lives / Secret Gardens R. T. Schnadelbach, 2009 hidden lives / secret gardens is a synthetic history about gardens and human sexuality. Written in an accessible style for the garden enthusiast, the serious landscape designer, and those interested in the lives of international celebrities, the book explores the very roots of Modernism as begun in Florence, Italy in the very first year of the twentieth century. For the past twenty-years, R. Terry Schnadelbach, FAAR, Professor of Landscape Architecture, University of Florida, has researched the Modernist era in landscape architecture. He authored a book, Ferruccio Vitale, Landscape Architect of the Country Place

Era, on the Florentine landscape architect, who brought to America both the formal garden as well as its first Modernist landscapes. In hidden lives / secret gardens, Schnadelbach exposes the engaging and intertwined lives of a group of expatriates, their secluded hillside villas and secret new gardens that ushered a new direction in garden design. Three successive new gardens at Villas Gamberaia, La Pietra and I Tatti were among the earliest Modernist landscapes and were an inspiration many landscape professionals in Britain and America. While hidden lives / secret gardens manuscript focuses on the revival of the Renaissance aesthetic in Florence and paints a picture of each garden's history, it explores the new and emerging field of sexual psychology through the hidden lives of the Villa's owners and designers, revealing their artistic life styles, their commercial and sexual mores.

Die Entbündelung der letzten Meile in der Schweiz im Lichte des GATS Thomas M. Fischer, 2004 Seit einiger Zeit hat die Diskussion über die weitere Liberalisierung des Schweizer Telekommunikationsmarkts eine völkerrechtliche Dimension erhalten. Im Rahmen des Dienstleistungsabkommen GATS der Welthandelsorganisation WTO hat sich die Schweiz 1998 zur internationalen Marktöffnung des Telekomsektors verpflichtet. Dieses Abkommen umfasst Regeln, welche sicherstellen sollen, dass den ausländischen Anbietern ein Zugang zu öffentlichen Netzen ermöglicht wird und dass angesichts der beherrschenden Marktstellung der früheren Staatsmonopole ein tatsächlicher Wettbewerb auf dem Telekomsektor herrscht. Damit stellt sich die Frage, ob das WTO-Recht in der Schweiz bewirken kann, was in der EU und fast allen anderen OECD-Staaten bereits Realität ist: die Öffnung der «letzten Meile» des Telefonnetzes für Konkurrenten des Netzeigentümers. Diese Problematik wird in der vorliegenden Arbeit durch eine Darstellung und Würdigung der Schweizer Praxis sowie eine detaillierte Analyse der WTO-Rechtsgrundlagen untersucht. So werden der «Annex on Telecommunications» zum GATS und die Zusatzverpflichtungen des «Reference Paper» von 1998 im Lichte eines neuen Urteils eines WTO-Schiedsgerichts betrachtet. Zudem wird gezeigt, wie die Verpflichtungen der Schweiz im Bereich der audiovisuellen Dienste sich auf die Frage der Entbündelung der letzten Meile auswirken.

She excitedly opens the package to find a bulb buried in a crate of dirt. This was not what Maggie expected. She had hoped for a doll or a game, not a bulb that would one day become a plant. When spring comes, she finds the bulb in the cellar and tosses the lifeless thing into the garden, never to think of it again. . . . Until she walks outside on Easter morning and finds the most beautiful lily she has ever seen. Through the unique gift of a bulb, Maggie discovers the power of grace and forgiveness and the true meaning of Easter.

Assessing Treaty Performance in China Pitman B. Potter, 2014-03-10 This volume outlines a new approach for understanding China's treaty performance around international standards on trade and human rights, using the paradigms of selective adaptation and institutional capacity. Selective adaptation reveals how local interpretation and implementation of international treaty standards are affected by normative perspectives derived from perception, complementarity, and legitimacy. Institutional capacity explains how operational dimensions of legal performance are affected by structural and relational dynamics of institutional purpose, location, orientation, and cohesion. The author also offers policy suggestions for more effective engagement with China on trade and human rights issues.
