The Fearless Flights of Hazel Ying Lee Little, Brown Books for Young Readers, 2021-02-02 An inspiring picture book biography about Hazel Ying Lee, the first Chinese American woman to fly for the US military. Hazel Ying Lee was born fearless -- she was not afraid of anything, and the moment she took her first airplane ride, she knew where she belonged. When people scoffed at her dreams of becoming a pilot, Hazel wouldn't take no for an answer.

She joined the Women Airforce Service Pilots during World War II. It was a dangerous job, but Hazel flew with joy and boldness. This moving, true story about a groundbreaking figure will inspire young readers to challenge barriers and reach for the sky.

Laying Down the Law Robin Creyke, 2020 Laying Down the Law provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the study of law.

Darkness Visible William Styron, 2010-05-04 The New York Times–bestselling memoir of crippling depression and the struggle for recovery by the Pulitzer Prize–winning author of Sophie’s Choice. In the summer of 1985, William Styron became numbed by disaffection, apathy, and despair, unable to speak or walk while caught in the grip of advanced depression. His struggle with the disease culminated in a wave of obsession that nearly drove him to suicide, leading him to seek hospitalization before the dark tide engulfed him. Darkness Visible tells the story of Styron’s recovery, laying bare the harrowing realities of clinical depression and chronicling his triumph over the disease that had claimed so many great writers before him. His final words are a call for hope to all who suffer from mental illness that it is possible to emerge from even the deepest abyss of despair and “once again behold the stars.” This ebook features a new illustrated biography of William Styron, including original letters, rare photos, and never-before-seen documents from the Styron family and the Duke University Archives.

Transforming Child Welfare Dorothy Badry,H. Monty Montgomery,Daniel Kikulwe,Don Fuchs,2016 Transforming Child Welfare tackles the wicked problems encountered in the child welfare system by social workers and other professionals, and suggests best practice solutions that professionals can use in their own practices.

More Than Asphalt, Concrete, and Steel ,1997 The Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 (ISTEA) encourages the mainstreaming of environmental, cultural, and social considerations in every aspect of transportation planning and development. ISTEA has paved the way for non-traditional projects by creating flexible funding. This unprecedented tool enables state and local decision makers to look beyond traditional highway and transit agendas. It empowers them to spend highway dollars on the most appropriate transportation solutions for their needs. They have chosen transportation activities ranging from renovating an historic bridge to realigning a main street to redesigning an entire transportation system. This booklet presents some of their exemplary environmental projects and processes.

Hummingbird's Squash Terry Lofton, 2013 Hummingbird tries new methods to grow huge fruits and vegetables and faces a bully with other plans for the garden, while Coyote plays tricks to teach her about the history and wisdom of traditional foods.

Black Elk Damian Costello, 2005 This study of Black Elk, the Oglala Lakota subject of the bestselling Black Elk Speaks, challenges the assumptions of many scholars - both those who claim that Black Elk was a Lakota holy man first and foremost and those who maintain that he abandoned his Lakota tradition after converting to Catholicism. Arguing from a post-colonial perspective, author Damien Costello deconstructs modern Western assumptions and shows that Black Elk was an active agent, and that his conversion was in continuity with the dynamics of Lakota culture and provided new power to challenge the dominance of colonialism. As a consequence, Black Elk the Lakota holy man and Black Elk the Lakota catechist remembered by his community were not contradictory but one consistent agent fighting for the survival of his people in a colonial world infringing on the Lakota, their lands, and their traditions.--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. All Rights Reserved
