The Travels in Tartary Thibet and China Anonymous,2023-07-18 Originally published in 1844, this book details the journey of a British missionary, explorer, and amateur botanist through the remote regions of Tartary, Tibet, and China. Filled with colorful descriptions of the people, landscapes, and cultures encountered along the way, it also includes detailed observations of local flora and fauna. This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

Australia's Blackest Sporting Moments Stephen Hagan,2006 In this collection of incidents of racism in Australian sports, the author is honest in his condemnation of the offenders, sporting administrators and government officials who continue to deny that there is a problem of racism in sport.

The Lecherous Professor Billie Wright Dziech,Linda Weiner,1990 Discusses sexual harassment on campus, and suggests actions students, parents, faculty, and administrators can take to combat it.

Rethinking Violence against Women Rebecca Emerson Dobash,Russell P. Dobash,1998-09-11 Based on a series of international workshops sponsored by the Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundations, this cutting-edge volume advances theories, methodologies, and policy analyses relating to various forms of violence against women. Under the skillful editorship of Rebecca Emerson and Russell P. Dobash, Rethinking Violence Against Women is the joint effort of recognized anthropologists, psychologists, philosophers, sociologists, and historians in the field. Divided in three parts, this text takes a comprehensive examination of the following topics: +

Crimes Against Women William J. Bopp,James J. Vardalis,1987

Rape Julie A. Allison,Lawrence S. Wrightsman,1993-06-21 Rape: The Misunderstood Crime is an excellent resource for professionals and students of psychology, sociology, education, social work, criminal justice, and law who seek to dispel rape myths and wish to better understand the nature and dynamics of both the rapist and the victim.

Rape and Inequality Julia R. Schwendinger,Herman Schwendinger,1983-05 The authors review popular, legal and scientific explanations of rape and offer a new and persuasive approach to understanding violence against women. They show that rape is not common to all societies and conclude that it is linked to general levels of sexual inequality, sexism and violence. It is seen as a consequence of the development of capitalism. In supporting their thesis, the authors present material that will be of great interest to anthropologists, criminologists, political economists, and people in women's studies. `This is the best book available on rape and will remain so for the foreseeable future. It is inordinately well written, brilliantly conceived, and imaginatively researched...I wholeheartedly recommen

Positive Criminology Michael Gottfredson,Travis Hirschi,1987-09 The philosophy of positivism of criminology -- the belief in a scientific approach to the study of crime -- has been widely challenged. In Positive Criminology leading proponents respond to the criticisms and assert the validity and value of the positivist paradigm. They define modern positive criminology and discuss important criminological issues from a positivistic perspective. The contributions demonstrate the value of this paradigm for understanding crime and solving the problems it presents.

Everything You Need to Know about Sexual Harassment Elizabeth Bouchard,2001 Discusses how to recognize and deal with sexual harassment and where to go for help.

Campus Gang Rape Julie K. Ehrhart,Bernice Resnick Sandler,1985

Criminology and Justice Lydia Voigt,1994 This introduction to criminology, designed for course in criminology offered at two and four schools, is one of the most comprehensive, and well-researched books on the market. For use in both Sociology and Criminal Justice departments, this text offers detailed coverage of theories and types of crime.

Victims of Crime Mike Maguire,John Pointing,1988

Women and the Genesis of Christianity Ben Witherington (III),Ben Witherington,1990-06-29 This book presents in as clear a way as possible the New Testament material dealing with women and their roles in the context of the movement Jesus began. Dr Witherington begins by illustrating the roles of women in Judaism, in the Hellenistic world, and in the Roman Empire. She goes on to show how Jesus broke significantly with convention in the way he viewed women and their roles, offering as he did a wholly new conception of the legitimate rights of women in society. An analysis follows of the apostle Paul's attitude toward women, which shows how he agreed with and differed from the ideas of his contemporaries. The concluding chapters discuss the evangelists, whose selection and presentation of material with respect to women casts much light on the early Church's understanding of women and their roles. This comprehensive survey, which avoids slanting its material to serve a modern patriarchal or feminist bias, comes to the exciting conclusion that we can see in the New Testament an attempt to reform the patriarchal orientation of the day.

Victimology Sandra Walklate,1989 Victims of crime and the way in which they are treated in society generally is the subject of this text, which examines the contributions of victim-related research and criminal victimization surveys in order to be able to provide the reader with a critical assessment of the issues involved.

Woman Abuse in Dating Relationships Walter S. DeKeseredy,1988

Dedicated Lives Helen O'Connell,1993 Dedicated Lives describes the lives and work of a number of women from grassroots organisations in the South who participated in the South-South Women's Linking Project, one of Oxfam's fiftieth anniversary initiatives.

Reclaiming Women's Spaces Yoon Jung Park,Joanne Fedler,Zubeda Dangor,2000

Patriarchy and Pub Culture Valerie Hey,1986-01-01

Social Deviance Daniel Glaser,1971

Sexual Assault on the College Campus Martin D. Schwartz,Walter DeKeseredy,1997-01-02 For many students, coeducational college campus life is marred by traumatic experiences of sexual assault. While there are many social determinants of rape and attempted rape, this work examines the pivotal role of male peer support in legitimizing the sexual assault of women. The authors use extensive prior studies together with their own investigations, including a national representative study and local campus victimization surveys carried out in the United States and Canada.
