250 Years in Fauquier County Kathi Ann Brown, Walter Nicklin, John T. Toler, Fauquier Historical Society (Va.), 2008 Beginning with the early interactions between Native Americans and European explorers and settlers, this history traces three and a half centuries of change in Fauquier County, Virginia. Commissioned by the Fauquier Historical Society to commemorate the county's 250th anniversary, this engrossing narrative tells the story of the men and women, black and white, who built the region's farms, plantations, schools, and churches. Individual biographies are interwoven with a social, political, and military history of the American Revolution and Civil War, allowing crucial events in the county's history to come alive. This book also explores Fauquier's depressed economy after the Civil War and shows how the area's location and natural beauty drew wealthy outsiders to purchase estates in the early part of the twentieth century. After midcentury, the enormous expansion of the Washington suburbs ignited a heated and ongoing debate over the county's position on growth and development. Related here is the fascinating story of a historically significant county. The volume has more than two hundred illustrations, some displaying the county's stunning beauty, which enhance the book throughout.

A New Human Impulse for Social Relations and Cultural Development Silvia Viñao Manzanera, Miguel Sancho, 2017-03-07 The second volume of the New Horizon Series, this book offers an overview of a wide range of contemporary issues in education and society, including narrative explorations, various models of education and learning, study techniques, leadership, experiential learning, emotions, personal development, recreational activities, emerging technologies, and the media, among others. All the topics discussed here currently subject to research and debate, but have been prevalent throughout history, impacting on different fields, including education, communication, and health. As such, it is vital to understand these topics in order to live in a society in which one must interact with other people and regulate one's emotions. All the contributors to this volume investigate how these issues affect society in general, reflecting on the causes of the functioning of the world. All chapters here provide a full and clear frame of reference for the problems, issues and disciplines discussed here, offering professional and experienced insights from a range of disciplines including education, history, psychology, literature and pedagogy. As such, this book represents a highly useful and contemporary manual for both students and the general public with an interest in the social sciences.

The Venice Biennale and the Asia-Pacific in the Global Art World Stephen Naylor, 2020-05-14 This monograph uses the national pavilions of the Venice Biennale as a vehicle to examine the development of international contemporary art trends within the Asia-Pacific region, including Australia, Japan and Korea and 16 additional national entities who have had less continuous participation in this global art event. Analysing both the spatial and visual representation of contemporary art presented at the Venice Biennale and incorporating the politics behind national selections, this monograph provides insights into a range of important elements of the global art industry. Areas analysed include national cultural trends and strategies, the inversion of the peripheral to the centre stage of the Biennale, geopolitics in gaining exhibition space at the Venice Biennale, curatorial practices for contemporary art presentation and artistic trends that seek to deal with major economic, cultural, religious and environmental issues emerging from non-European art centres. This monograph will be of interest to scholars in art history, museum studies and Asia-Pacific cultural history.

Social Work Practice in Health Melissa Petrakis, 2022-12-01 Health services practice or working with clients facing health issues requires diverse approaches and wide-ranging knowledge. In this fully revised and expanded second edition, Melissa Petrakis draws on the experience and expertise of leading researchers and practitioners to provide a guide to the disparate settings in which social workers are engaged and the conceptual frameworks and skills needed for effective practice. Including new chapters on compassion in healthcare, neoliberalism and health, social justice, suicidal distress, and health social work in regional, rural and remote settings, the book begins by examining the nature of health social work and considers its core values and principles. Part I also provides an overview of the social determinants of health. Part II explores key areas of practice including trauma-informed practice, mental health, aged care, dual diagnosis and working with people living with disability. Part III looks at politicised issues, reform agendas in the field including indigenous approaches to health, refugee health, and concludes by considering how a focus on well-being informed by Maori approaches could provide new insights into better practice. Underpinning the book throughout is a clear guide to assessment procedures, case management, strengths-based practices and developing effective partnerships and collaboration. All this makes Social Work Practice in Health a key reference tool for social work students and practitioners.

Projetos Escolares – Educação Infantil Projetos Escolares, Educação Infantil, Educação, On Line Editora, Você dedicou todo o seu fim de semana para preparar a aula de segunda-feira. Então, chega à escola e, enquanto explica as atividades do dia para as crianças, dois alunos começam a discutir, a gritar, a brigar um com o outro. Você não consegue contê-los, ninguém mais presta atenção ao que está dizendo e, de repente, um se machuca... Nesse momento, o que vem à sua cabeça? Que todos os preparativos foram em vão e que, por isso, abrirá mão de tudo para, quem sabe um dia, retomar o que havia planejado? Com certeza, a resposta é não. Sem a menor “sombra de dúvida”, você conseguirá conter os ânimos da classe, ajudar o aluno ferido e usar a situação como uma maneira de “construir”, nas crianças, o espírito de solidariedade, de respeito e de limite. E mais: saberá qual é a melhor ocasião para retomar as atividades preparadas. Resumindo: no momento em que todo o seu planejamento pareceu ter sido “jogado fora”, você conseguiu vislumbrar horizontes e encontrar uma forma de aproveitar-se do ocorrido para tornar o problema um aprendizado.
