Y Orsonm.htm

William Henry Snell

Orson Welles Barbara Leaming,1986 Este libro es todo un acontecimiento porque, por primera vez, aparece una biografía de ese genio que es Orson Welles en la que él mismo participa activamente. En su compañía, seguimos su vida desde su insólita infancia de niño prodigio hasta su misteriosa existencia de los últimos años, pasando por su inquieta adolescencia teatral, su precoz y escandalosa irrupción en la radio, con la célebre emisión de La guerra de los mundos que sembró el pánico en Nueva York ; su titánica carrera cinematográfica con obras maestras como El cuidando Kane ; su meteórica actividad política y, por supuesto, su pasión por Dolores del Río, su atormentado matrimonio con Rita Hayworth, su relación con Judy Garland, su profunda amistad con Marlene Dietrich y su caprichosos amoríos con bailarinas y coristas. Tras cada episodio de su vida contada parece oírse la voz de Orson Welles , comentándola, reinvetándola, casi reescribiéndola con Barbara Leaming quien sabe registrarlo todo con habilidad para nuestro mayor deleite.

Orson Welles and Roger Hill Todd Tarbox,2013 This book chronicles the seven-decade relationship between Orson Welles and his mentor and treasured friend, the author's grandfather, Roger Hill. Welles's attachment to Hill was instant, reciprocal, and developed into an enduring love. Their intimate conversations and correspondence revealed in Friendship - at times frothy, and at other times solemn - reflect their incalculable interests and abiding fascination with the human comedy. Orson was recognized by multitudes around the world, and his celebrity hasn't diminished since his death in 1985. His public persona is widely known, admired, and debated, but very few knew the private Orson Welles. That fascinating and uncommonly warm persona is radiantly revealed in every page, as is the equally charismatic nature of Roger Hill.
