What Does New America Need? Topics of the Constitutional Convention | American Constitution Book Grade 4 | Children's Government Books Universal Politics,2020-12-31 America suffered under a powerful government so they were afraid to give too much power on any government for fear of another war. It's interesting how their rules and laws gradually evolved to ensure equality while at the same time delegating sufficient power and authority to a central government. Most of these decisions were made during the Constitutional Convention. Turn the pages of this book to learn more
