Moon-face and Other Stories Jack London,1906 JACK LONDON (1876-1916), American novelist, born in San Francisco, the son of an itinerant astrologer and a spiritualist mother. He grew up in poverty, scratching a living in various legal and illegal ways - robbing the oyster beds, working in a canning factory and a jute mill, serving aged 17 as a common sailor, and taking part in the Klondike gold rush of 1897. This various experience provided the material for his works, and made him a socialist. The son of the Wolf (1900), the first of his collections of tales, is based upon life in the Far North, as is the book that brought him recognition, The Call of the Wild (1903), which tells the story of the dog Buck, who, after his master's death, is lured back to the primitive world to lead a wolf pack. Many other tales of struggle, travel, and adventure followed, including The Sea-Wolf (1904), White Fang (1906), South Sea Tales (1911), and Jerry of the South Seas (1917). One of London's most interesting novels is the semi-autobiographical Martin Eden (1909). He also wrote socialist treatises, autobiographical essays, and a good deal of journalism.

Information Highlighting in Advanced Learner English Marcus Callies,2009 This book presents the first detailed and comprehensive study of information highlighting in advanced learner language, echoing the increasing interest in questions of near-native competence in SLA research and contributing to the description of advanced interlanguages. It examines the production and comprehension of specific means of information highlighting in English by native speakers and German learners of English as a foreign language, presenting triangulated experimental and learner corpus data as corroborating evidence. The study focuses on learners' use of discourse-pragmatically motivated variations of the basic word order such as inversion, preposing, and it- and wh-clefts, an underexplored field in SLA research to date. The book also provides a critical re-assessment of the study of pragmatics within SLA. It has largely been neglected to date that L2 pragmatic knowledge includes more than the sociopragmatic and pragmalinguistic abilities for understanding and performing speech acts. Thus, the book argues for an extension of the scope of inquiry in interlanguage pragmatics beyond the cross-cultural investigation of speech acts. It also discusses pedagogical implications for foreign language teaching and will be of interest to applied linguists and SLA researchers, language teachers and curriculum designers.

H8r Michael Roy,2022-01-08 The only thing that eighteen-year-old Andy Bradshaw had on her mind was that she was graduating high school in a matter of a few months. Andy has never been one of the popular girls because she makes good grades in all of her classes, reads and aspires to become a great writer. Unfortunately, she doesn't have anything to write about. Her twin brother, Riley, wants to follow a different path and become a rock guitar god. Because of this, they are almost always at odds. Andy has only a small circle of good friends which isn't anything bad to complain about. That is, until, a new and definitely different social media app pops up into everybody's phone screens. It is Hater, an app dedicated for users to only post hate comments back and forth to each other. Anyone who decides to no longer put up with any of the negativity and post a nice or positive comment mysteriously disappears. As the student body of John P. Dorset High School and the rest of the world grows more and more out of control due to the presence of Hater, it is up to Andy and her friends to stand up for themselves and come together as a team to take down this faceless threat. The only question that remains is: can Andy act quickly and take down this Internet monster before she loses everyone that she loves as they slowly disappear one by one?

Cries Unheard Gitta Sereny,2000-04-15 England's controversial #1 best-seller. What brings a child to kill another child? In 1968, at age eleven, Mary Bell was tried and convicted of murdering two small boys in Newcastle upon Tyne, England. Gitta Sereny, who covered the sensational trial, never believed the characterization of Bell as the incarnation of evil, the bad seed personified. If we are ever to understand the pressures that lead children to commit serious crimes, Sereny felt, only those children, as adults, can enlighten us. Twenty-seven years after her conviction, Mary Bell agreed to talk to Sereny about her harrowing childhood, her terrible acts, her public trial, and her years of imprisonment-to talk about what was done to her and what she did, who she was and who she became. Nothing Bell says is intended as an excuse for her crimes. But her devastating story forces us to ponder society's responsibility for children at the breaking point, whether in Newcastle, Arkansas, or Oregon. A masterpiece of wisdom and sympathy, Gitta Sereny's wrenching portrait of a girl's damaged childhood and a woman's fight for moral regeneration urgently calls on us to hear the cries of all children at risk.
