Moon-face and Other Stories Jack London,1906 JACK LONDON (1876-1916), American novelist, born in San Francisco, the son of an itinerant astrologer and a spiritualist mother. He grew up in poverty, scratching a living in various legal and illegal ways -robbing the oyster beds, working in a canning factory and a jute mill, serving aged 17 as a common sailor, and taking part in the Klondike gold rush of 1897. This various experience provided the material for his works, and made him a socialist. The son of the Wolf (1900), the first of his collections of tales, is based upon life in the Far North, as is the book that brought him recognition, The Call of the Wild (1903), which tells the story of the dog Buck, who, after his master's death, is lured back to the primitive world to lead a wolf pack. Many other tales of struggle, travel, and adventure followed, including The Sea-Wolf (1904), White Fang (1906), South Sea Tales (1911), and Jerry of the South Seas (1917). One of London's most interesting novels is the semi-autobiographical Martin Eden (1909). He also wrote socialist treatises, autobiographical essays, and a good deal of journalism.

When your body gets used to a specific workout program, it loses its effectiveness. For example if you do sit-ups every day in a month and increase the number of reps as days pass, not only it doesn't help your body to burn fats and build muscles, but it makes this exercise easy for your body and it loses its effectiveness. If you always get your body in to new challenges and learn more exercises, for sure, your body is going to be fit. In this book we challenge you and your body to new workouts and exercises. All of the body parts, legs, abs, and upper body... have been categorized in their own section and each section consists of steps. Each step is different from each other and is a challenge for you. From step 1 as you go forward you face new exercises and different levels of reps for each exercise which has been divided to 3 Modes: Minimum, Middle, and Maximum. Each step is a prerequisite for the next one. If you find a step hard, don't rush ahead to the next step. Just practice this one in your workout till you get comfortable with it and then go for the next step. Choose your Specific Body Type workout program that suits your body.
